CHAPTER 212

DISENTAILMENT OF PROPERTY (EXTENSION TO FIEFS) ACT

To extend the provisions of the Entailed Property (Disentailment) Act, to property held in fief.

(21st November, 1969)*

Enacted by ACT XXX of 1969.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Disentailment of Property (Extension to fiefs) Act.

Application of the Entailed Property (Disentailment) Act, to property held in fief. Cap. 130.

2. With effect from the coming into force of this Act, the Entailed Property (Disentailment) Act, shall apply to all property held in fief as it applies to property subject to fideicommissum with such modifications and adaptations as the case may require, and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, with the modification that references in that Act to the material date shall, in respect of property held in fief, be construed as references to the date of the coming into force of this Act.

Act not to affect titles of nobility.

3. Nothing in this Act shall affect any title of nobility, and the laws in force concerning any such titles shall continue to have effect.

See Government Notice No. 964 of 21st November, 1969.
