

L.N. 71 of 1998

BROADCASTING ACT, 1991
(ACT NO. XII OF 1991)

Television Broadcasting Services (Antennae) Regulations, 1998

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 35 of the Broadcasting Act, 1991, the Broadcasting Authority, in conjunction with the Prime Minister, has made the following regulations:—

Citation and commencement.

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Television Broadcasting Services (Antennae) Regulation, 1998.

(2) These regulations shall be deemed to have come into force on 1 July, 1997.

Validity of these regulations in relation to the Act.

2. These regulations shall prevail over the provisions of paragraph 1(h) of the First Schedule and paragraph 16 of Part C of the Fourth Schedule to the Broadcasting Act, 1991, insofar as the said paragraphs regulate antenna systems or the siting of antenna systems for television broadcasting services. The remaining provisions of the First and Fourth Schedules shall continue to apply to television broadcasting services in respect of matters not specified in these regulations.

Antennae for television broadcasting services.

3. (1) The provisions of paragraph 1(h) of the First Schedule and of paragraph 16 of Part C of the Fourth Schedule to the Broadcasting Act, 1991, shall not apply to television broadcasting services.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section (3) hereof, television broadcasting services shall make use of such antenna systems and sites for antenna systems as the Broadcasting Authority, with the concurrence of the Minister responsible for Wireless Telegraphy, may in writing approve.

(3) These regulations shall not dispense any person from obtaining any permit that may be required by law from the Planning Authority, or from any other body, to erect or operate any antenna system.
