entities in the group to the balance sheet total of the group as a whole shall exceed forty (40) per centum.

(2) For the purposes of determining whether activities in different financial sectors are significant, for each financial sector the average of the ratio of the balance sheet total of that financial sector to the balance sheet total of the financial sector entities in the group and the ratio of the solvency requirements of the same financial sector to the total solvency requirements of the financial sector entities in the group shall exceed ten (10) per centum:

Provided that for the purposes of these regulations, the smallest financial sector in a financial conglomerate is the sector with the smallest average and the most important financial sector in a financial conglomerate is the sector with the highest average. For the purposes of calculating the average and for the measurement of the smallest and the most important financial sectors, the banking sector and the investment services sector shall be considered together.

(3) Cross-sectoral activities shall also be presumed to be significant if the balance sheet total of the smallest financial sector in the group exceeds six (6) billion euro. If the group does not reach the threshold referred to in sub-regulation (2) but satisfies such six (6) billion euro threshold, the Authority, in agreement with the other relevant competent authorities, may decide not to regard the group as a financial conglomerate, or not to apply the provisions of regulations 7, 8 or 9, if the Authority and the other relevant competent authorities are of the opinion that the inclusion of the group in the scope of these regulations or the application of such provisions is not necessary or would be inappropriate or misleading with respect to the objectives of supplementary supervision, taking into account, for instance, the fact that:

(a) the relative size of its smallest financial sector does not exceed five (5) per centum, measured either in terms of the average referred to in sub-regulation (2) or in terms of the balance sheet total or the solvency requirements of such financial sector; or

(b) the market share does not exceed five (5) per centum in any Member State, measured in terms of the balance sheet total in the banking or investment services sectors and in terms of gross premiums written in the insurance sector:

Provided that decisions taken by the Authority in agreement with the other relevant competent authorities in accordance with this sub-regulation shall be notified to the other competent authorities concerned.

(4) For the application of sub-regulations (1), (2) and (3), the Authority, in agreement with the other relevant competent authorities, may:

(a) exclude an entity when calculating the ratios, in the cases referred to in sub-regulation (10) of regulation 6; and

(b) take into account compliance with the thresholds envisaged in sub-regulations (1) and (2) for three consecutive years so as to avoid sudden regime shifts, and disregard such compliance if there are significant changes in the group's structure:

Provided that where a financial conglomerate has been identified in accordance with sub-regulations (1), (2) and (3), the decisions referred to in paragraph (a) shall be taken on the basis of a proposal made by the coordinator of that financial conglomerate.

(a) income structure,

(b) off-balance sheet activities:

Provided that the Authority may, alternatively, add one or both of these parameters, if the Authority and the other relevant competent authorities are of the opinion that these parameters are of particular relevance for the purposes of supplementary supervision under these regulations.

(6) For the application of sub-regulations (1) and (2), if the ratios referred to in those sub-regulations fall below forty (40) per centum and ten (10) per centum respectively for conglomerates already subject to supplementary supervision, a lower ratio of thirty five (35) per centum and eight (8) per centum respectively shall apply for the following three years to avoid sudden regime shifts:

Provided that for the application of sub-regulation (3), if the balance sheet total of the smallest financial sector in the group falls below six (6) billion euro for conglomerates already subject to supplementary supervision, a lower figure of five (5) billion euro shall apply for the following three years to avoid sudden regime shifts:

Provided further that during the period referred to in this sub-regulation, the coordinator may, with the agreement of the other relevant competent authorities, decide that the lower ratios or the lower amount referred to in this sub-regulation shall cease to apply.

(7) The calculations referred to in this regulation regarding the balance sheet shall be made on the basis of the aggregated balance sheet total of the entities of the group, according to their annual accounts. For the purposes of this calculation, undertakings in which participation is held shall be taken into account as regards the amount of their balance sheet total corresponding to the aggregated proportional share held by the group. Where consolidated accounts are available, they shall be used instead of aggregated accounts:

Provided that the solvency requirements referred to in sub-regulations (2) and (3) shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of the relevant sectoral rules.

4. (1) The Authority shall identify from among its regulated entities, in accordance with regulations 3 and 5, any group that falls within the scope of these regulations.

FIRST SCHEDULE

Capital Adequacy

(Regulation 6)

The calculation of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements of the regulated entities in a financial conglomerate referred to in sub-regulation (1) of regulation 6 shall be carried out in accordance with the technical principles and one of the methods described in this Schedule.

Without prejudice to the provisions (A) and (B), the Authority when appointed coordinator with regard to a particular financial conglomerate, shall decide, after consultation with the other relevant competent authorities and the financial conglomerate itself, which method shall be applied by that financial conglomerate.

(A) Where a financial conglomerate is headed by a regulated entity authorised in Malta, the Authority may determine which particular method among those described in this Schedule shall be used for the purpose of the calculation; and

(B) Where a financial conglomerate is not headed by a regulated entity, a method among those described in this Schedule shall be used for the purpose of the calculation.

I. Technical principles

1. Extent and form of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements calculation

Whichever method is used, when the entity is a subsidiary undertaking and has a solvency deficit, or, in the case of a non-regulated financial sector entity, a notional solvency deficit, the total solvency deficit of the subsidiary has to be taken into account. Where in this case, in the opinion of the Authority when appointed coordinator, the responsibility of the parent undertaking owning a share of the capital is limited strictly and unambiguously to that share of the capital, the coordinator may give permission for the solvency deficit of the subsidiary undertaking to be taken into account on a proportional basis.

Where there are no capital ties between entities in a financial conglomerate, the coordinator, after consultation with the other relevant competent authorities, shall determine which proportional share will have to be taken into account, bearing in mind the liability to which the existing relationship gives rise.

2. Other technical principles

Regardless of the method used for the calculation of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements of regulated entities in a financial conglomerate as laid down in Section II of this Schedule, the coordinator, and where necessary other competent authorities concerned, shall ensure that the following principles will apply:

(i) the multiple use of elements eligible for the calculation of own funds at the level of the financial conglomerate (multiple gearing) as well as any inappropriate intra-group creation of own funds is not permissible; in order to ensure the elimination of multiple gearing and the intra-group creation of own funds, competent authorities shall apply by analogy the relevant principles laid down in the relevant sectoral rules;

(ii) the solvency requirements for each different financial sector represented in a financial conglomerate shall be covered by own funds elements in accordance with the corresponding sectoral rules; when there is a deficit of own funds at the financial conglomerate level, only own funds elements which are eligible according to each of the sectoral rules (cross-sector capital) shall qualify for verification of compliance with the additional solvency requirements;

where sectoral rules provide for limits on the eligibility of certain own funds instruments, which would qualify as cross-sector capital, these limits shall apply mutatis mutandis when calculating own funds at the level of the financial conglomerate;

when calculating own funds at the level of the financial conglomerate, competent authorities shall also take into account the effectiveness of the transferability and availability of the own funds across the different legal entities in the group, given the objectives of the capital adequacy rules;

where, in the case of a non-regulated financial sector entity, a notional solvency requirement is calculated in accordance with Section II of this Schedule, notional solvency requirement means the capital requirement with which such an entity would have to comply under the relevant sectoral rules as if it were a regulated entity of that particular financial sector; in the case of asset management companies, solvency requirement means the capital requirement set out in Article 5a(1)(a) of Directive 85/611/EEC; the notional solvency requirement of a mixed financial holding company shall be calculated according to the sectoral rules of the most important financial sector in the financial conglomerate.

II. Technical calculation methods

Method 1: Accounting consolidation method

The calculation of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements of the regulated entities in a financial conglomerate shall be carried out on the basis of the consolidated accounts.

The supplementary capital adequacy requirements shall be calculated as the difference between:

- (i) the own funds of the financial conglomerate calculated on the basis of the consolidated position of the group; the elements eligible are those that qualify in accordance with the relevant sectoral rules; and
- (ii) the sum of the solvency requirements for each different financial sector represented in the group; the solvency requirements for each different financial sector are calculated in accordance with the corresponding sectoral rules.

The sectoral rules referred to are in particular Directives 2000/12/EC, Title V, Chapter 3, as regards credit institutions, 98/78/EC as regards insurance undertakings, and 93/6/EEC as regards credit institutions and investment firms and the Financial Institutions Act (Cap 376 of the Laws of Malta).

In the case of non-regulated financial sector entities which are not included in the aforementioned sectoral solvency requirement calculations, a notional solvency requirement shall be calculated.

The difference shall not be negative.

Method 2: Deduction and aggregation method

The calculation of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements of the regulated entities in a financial conglomerate shall be carried out on the basis of the accounts of each of the entities in the group.

The supplementary capital adequacy requirements shall be calculated as the difference between:

- (i) the sum of the own funds of each regulated and non-regulated financial sector entity in the financial conglomerate; the elements eligible are those which qualify in accordance with the relevant sectoral rules; and
- (ii) the sum of –
 - the solvency requirements for each regulated and non regulated financial sector entity in the group; the solvency requirements shall be calculated in accordance with the relevant sectoral rules; and
 - the book value of the participations in other entities of the group.

In the case of non-regulated financial sector entities, a notional solvency requirement shall be calculated. Own funds and solvency requirements shall be taken into account for their proportional share as provided for in sub-regulation (9) of regulation 6 and in accordance with Section I of this Schedule.

The difference shall not be negative.

Method 3: Book value/Requirement deduction method

The calculation of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements of the regulated entities in a financial conglomerate shall be carried out on the basis of the accounts of each of the entities in the group.

The supplementary capital adequacy requirements shall be calculated as the difference between:

(i) the own funds of the parent undertaking or the entity at the head of the financial conglomerate; the elements eligible are those which qualify in accordance with the relevant sectoral rules; and

(ii) the sum of

– the solvency requirement of the parent undertaking or the head referred to in (i) above; and – the higher of the book value of the former's participation in other entities in the group and these entities' solvency requirements; the solvency requirements of the latter shall be taken into account for their proportional share as provided for in sub-regulation (9) of regulation 6 and in accordance with Section I of this Schedule.

In the case of non-regulated financial sector entities, a notional solvency requirement shall be calculated. When valuing the elements eligible for the calculation of the supplementary capital adequacy requirements, participations may be valued by the equity method in accordance with the option set out in Article 59(2)(b) of Directive 78/660/EEC.

The difference shall not be negative.

Method 4: Combination of methods 1, 2 and 3

The Authority in agreement with the other relevant competent authorities may allow a combination of methods 1, 2 and 3, or a combination of two of these methods.

SECOND SCHEDULE

(Regulations 7 and 8)

1. The coordinator, after consultation with the other relevant competent authorities, shall identify the type of transactions and risks regulated entities in a particular financial conglomerate have a duty to report in accordance with the provisions of sub-regulation (2) of regulation 7 and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 8 on the reporting of intra-group transactions and risk concentration.
