Elections Commission.

3. (1) There shall be established a Commission, to be called the Council for the Professions Complimentary to Medicine Elections Commission composed of three election commissioners.

(2) For subsequent years, the Council shall, in January of each year, appoint a Commission, bearing the same name and composed of the same number of commissioners to conduct the election to the said Council for that year.

Nomination of Candidates.

4. The Commission shall by the end of January, cause a notice to be published in the Gazette and in all local daily newspapers, specifying the place, days and times during which nominations of candidates for the election to the Council will be received by the Registrar.

5. (1) When the Commission is informed by the Chairman that a vacancy occurs amongst the elected members of the Council, it shall as soon as may be, cause a notice to be published in the Gazette, and all local newspapers, specifying the place, days and times during which nominations of candidates for election to the Council will be received by the Commission.

Notice of candidature to be published.

(2) A candidate shall be nominated in writing on a form in accordance with the specimen contained in the First Schedule to these regulations. Whatever the number of vacancies to be filled, no person shall be nominated to fill in more than one vacancy.

6. (1) If the nominations received exceed the number of vacancies on the Council, an election shall be held.

Holding of an election.

(2) The Commission shall, within three days after the closure of nominations, publish a notice in the Gazette specifying the place, days and time during which the ballots will be received by the Commission.

(3) The ballot paper to be used for the purpose of the election shall be in accordance with the specimen contained in the Second Schedule to these regulations, and shall be signed by two members of the Commission.

7. A voter shall record his vote by placing a cross against the name of the candidate for whom he votes.

Manner of voting.

8. Votes shall not be accepted after the expiration of the time fixed by the Commission for the receipt of such votes.

No voting after closing time.

9. The Commission shall count the votes immediately after the expiration of the time mentioned in the preceding regulation.

Counting of votes.

10. When, a larger number of votes than is required is registered on ballot paper, the ballot paper shall be declared invalid by the Commission.
