

L.N. 34 of 2004

HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONS ACT, 2003
(ACT . NO. XII of 2003)

Pharmacy Council (Elections) Regulations, 2004

IN exercise of the powers conferred by article 51(1)(f) of the Health Care Professions Act, 2003, the Minister of Health has made the following regulations:-

Title and commencement.

1. (1) The title of these regulations is the Pharmacy Council (Elections) Regulations, 2004.

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the 20th January, 2004.

Definitions.

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires –

“Council” means the Pharmacy Council;

“President” means the President of the Council;

“the Commission” means the Pharmacy Council Elections Commission established by Regulation 3 of these regulations;

“Registrar” means Registrar of the Council.

Elections
Commission.

3. (1) There shall be established a Commission, to be called the Pharmacy Council Elections Commission, composed of three election commissioners.

(2) For subsequent years, the Council shall, in January of each year, appoint a Commission, bearing the same name and composed of the same number of commissioners to conduct the election to the said Council for that year.

Nomination of candidates.

4. The Commission shall by the end of January 2004, cause a notice to be published in Gazette and in two local daily newspapers, specifying the place, days and times during which nominations of candidates for the election to the Council will be received by the Registrar.

5. (1) When the Commission is informed by the President that a vacancy occurs amongst the elected members of the Council, it shall as soon as may be, cause a notice to be published in the Gazette, and all local daily newspapers, specifying the place, days and times during which nominations of candidates for election to the Council will be received by the Commission.

Notice of candidature to be published.

(2) A candidate shall be nominated in writing on a form in accordance with the specimen contained in the First Schedule to these regulations. Whatever the number of vacancies to be filled, no person shall be nominated to fill in more than one vacancy.

6. (1) If the nominations received exceed the number of vacancies on the Council, an election shall be held.

Holding of an election.

(2) The Commission shall, within three working days after the closure of nominations, send a ballot paper to all pharmacists and pharmacy technicians resident in Malta and who are registered or licensed with the Council and shall inform voters of the method of voting as well as the place where, and the time by which the ballots are to be returned to the Commission.

(3) The ballot paper to be used for the purpose of the election shall be in accordance with the specimen contained in the Second Schedule to these regulations, and shall be signed by a member of the Commission.

7. A voter shall record his vote by placing a cross against the name of the candidate for whom he votes.

Manner of voting.

8. Votes shall not be accepted after the expiration of the time fixed by the Commission for the receipt of such votes.

No voting after closing time.

9. The Commission shall count the votes immediately after the expiration of the time mentioned in the preceding regulation.

Counting of votes.

10. When, a larger number of votes than is required is registered on ballot paper, the ballot paper shall be declared invalid by the Commission.

Invalid votes.

11. The candidates who obtain the largest number of votes shall be declared elected by the Commission.

Elected candidates.

Partial elections.

12. If two or more candidates obtain an equal number of votes, a partial election amongst those candidates shall be held in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

Reporting of result.

13. The Commission shall immediately report the election result to the Minister responsible for health, and the said result shall be published in the Gazette.

Decision of the Commission.

14. The decision of the Commission on the validity of any nomination, the right of a person to cast the vote, the place where the votes are received and the result of the election, is final and conclusive.

Repeal Legal Notice 410 of 2003.

15. The Pharmacy Council (Elections) Regulations, 2003, is hereby repealed.
