

L.N. 125 of 2002

MALTA TRAVEL AND TOURISM SERVICES ACT
(CAP. 409)

Fees (Tourism) Regulations 2002

IN exercise of the powers conferred by articles 47 and 7(3) of the Malta Travel and Tourism Services Act, hereunder referred to as “the Act”, the Minister for Tourism, on the recommendation of the Malta Tourism Authority, has made the following regulations:-

1. The title of these regulations is the Fees (Tourism) Regulations, 2002;

Citation.

2. (1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:-

Interpretation.

“main tourist areas”, “secondary tourist areas” and “non-tourist areas” mean the areas specified as such in the Second Schedule to these regulations;

“tour operator representative” means an incoming tourism agent acting as a representative of a tour operator for leisure travel;

(2) Words and expressions used in these regulations and which are also used in the Act shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the same meaning as in the Act.

Licence fees.

3. There shall be payable to the Authority for the issue, transfer or renewal of any licence or certificate issued under the Act, the relative fee as specified in the First Schedule to these regulations.

Due dates of licence fees.

4. (1) The fee payable for a licence issued by the Authority under the Act shall be deemed to be due on the first day of January of each year.

New licences issued after mid-year.

(2) The provision of paragraph (1) of this regulation shall not apply in relation to a house on lease to tourists, in which case the duration of the licence shall be for a period of twelve months commencing on the date when the lease agreement is made.

Contributions.

5. (1) In addition to the above-mentioned fees, there shall be payable to the Authority, by the persons referred to in the First Column of the Second Schedule to these regulations, the annual contribution set out in the Second Column of that Schedule in relation to those persons and to matters connected with tourism and as specified therein:

Provided that if the amount of the contribution due to the Authority is paid within three months from the date when the payment of such amount is due, the applicable rate shall be reduced by twenty per cent (20%).

(2) The said contributions shall, unless otherwise established by the Authority, be deemed to be due on the same date as the above-mentioned licence fees in accordance with regulation 4 of these regulations.

6. Whenever a new licence in respect of any tourism operation is due to the Authority after the first day of July of any year, the fee for such a licence and the amount for such contribution shall be at the rate of one half the annual amount applicable for such licence and contribution.

Fees and contributions due after the 1st July of any year.

7. (1) Whenever, during the validity of a licence, a tourism operation is reclassified in a class superior or inferior to the one shown on the licence, the Authority shall, on payment of the relative fee and new contribution by the tourism operator, substitute such licence with a new licence denoting the new classification.

Fees due on reclassifications.

(2) In any case falling under the provisions of paragraph (1) of this regulation, there shall be deducted from the relative amounts payable in respect of the new licence and new contribution the fee paid for the former licence and amount paid for the former contribution:

Provided that, where a reclassification as referred to in paragraph (1) of this regulation is made after the first day of July, the deduction to be allowed shall be equal to one half of the fee paid in respect of the former licence.

8. Whenever the accommodation of a hotel, tourist village, aparthotel, hostel, guesthouse or holiday premises is increased, with the approval of the Authority and according to the fee specified in these regulations, such increase carries a higher rate of the licence fee and contribution, there shall be paid by the licensee of the above-mentioned tourism operation, the difference between the higher fee and the fee paid for the licence and contribution:

Difference in fees as a result of increased capacity.

Provided that when the provisions of this regulation become applicable in respect of any such licence and contribution at any time after the first day of July of any year, the amount payable shall be equal to one half of such difference.

Deduction of temporary licence fee.

9. There shall be deducted from the licence fee payable following a first application, the fee, if any, paid for a temporary licence issued during the same year.

Fees on appeal.

10. When an appeal is entered under the provision of article 13 of the Act, the appellant shall pay to the Tourism Appeals Board the relative fee as set out in the First Schedule to these Regulations.

Repeals
L.N. 67 of 1972,
L.N.134 of 1976,
L.N. 41 of 1980 and
L.N. 14 of 2001

11. (1) The Hotels and Catering Establishments Regulations, 1972, the Guest Houses and Holiday Furnished Premises (Amendment) Regulations 1989, the Travel Agencies and Hotel Services (Amendment) Regulations, 1980 and the Tourism Services (Private Sector Contributions) Regulations, 2001 are hereby repealed.

(2) Any fees relating to licences, certificates and contributions due to the Hotels and Catering Establishments Board, the Ministry of Tourism and the Authority under the regulations being repealed, and which may be due immediately before such repeal, shall be due to the Authority as if they were fees due under these Regulations.
