ACT No. VII of 2006

AN ACT to amend the Employment and Training Services Act, Cap 343.

BE IT ENACTED by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the House of Representatives, in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same, as follows:-

1. This Act may be cited as the Employment and Training Services (Amendment) Act, 2006 and it shall be read and construed as one with the Employment and Training Services Act, hereinafter referred to as “the principal Act”. Short title.

2. Immediately after article 15 of the principal Act, there shall be added the following new article: Adds new article 15A to the principal Act.

“Redeployment of employees within the public sector.

15A. (1) Where the Prime Minister considers that an employee, of a body or partnership referred to in article 110(6) of the Constitution who by reason of the reorganisation or restructuring of any said body or partnership may lose his employment or who has otherwise become redundant, may be redeployed in the public sector in another employment with another body or partnership as above mentioned, he may issue an order which shall order such redeployment and such order shall have effect and for the purpose of the said redeployment any employment made by the employment service provided by the Corporation shall be made in accordance with the said order.

(2) An order issued under subarticle (1) may include such terms, conditions, provisions and time limits as the Prime Minister may consider it appropriate to include for the purpose of regulating the said redeployment or for the purpose of avoiding any undue burden, anomaly and hardship upon the employer or upon the employee or upon other employees of the body or partnership where the said employee shall have been or shall be about to be redeployed.”.
