

L.N. 267 of 2001

DEVELOPMENT PLANNING ACT
(CAP. 356)

Development Control Commission (Types of Applications) (Transitory Provisions) Regulations, 2001

IN virtue of the powers conferred by sub-article (1) of article 13 of the Development Planning Act, the Minister for Home Affairs, after having consulted the Planning Authority, has made the following regulations:

Title and commencement.

1. (1) The title of these regulations is the Development Control Commission (Types of Applications) (Transitory Provisions) Regulations, 2001.

(2) These regulations shall come into force on 1st November, 2001.

Types of applications to be dealt with by the Divisions of the Development
Control Commission.

2. The divisions of the Development Control Commission shall deal with the following development permission applications:

(a) Division A shall only deal with requests for reconsideration from decisions of the said Commission concerning development permission applications taken prior to 1st November, 2001;

(b) Division B shall deal with:

(i) all other development permission applications, whether still pending or new; and

(ii) requests for reconsideration concerning development permission applications decided by the said Division after 1st November, 2001.