

L.N. 368 of 2005

CENSUS ACT

(CAP.118)

Census Regulations, 2005

IN exercise of the powers conferred by article 6 of the Census Act, the Prime Minister and Minister of Finance has made the following regulations:-

1. The title of these regulations is the Census Regulations, 2005. Citation.

2. In these regulations : Definition.

“the Act” means the Census Act;

“census forms” means the forms prescribed in regulation 11 hereof;

“census information” means all information necessary for the making of true and accurate entries in census forms;

“Census Order” means the Census Order, 2005;

“locality” and “enumeration areas” mean such sections of Malta as may be determined by the Census Officer under regulation 3 hereof;

“midnight ending the Census Day” has the same meaning as is assigned to it in the Census Order.

3. The Census Officer shall divide Malta into localities and where he deems necessary he may also divide a locality into enumeration areas. Locality and enumeration areas.

4. (a) The Census Officer may appoint such number of suitable persons as he may deem necessary to be supervisors and enumerators and he shall assign localities and enumeration areas to them as he may deem appropriate; Appointment of supervisors and enumerators.

(b) Notice of the appointment of every supervisor and enumerator shall be published in the Gazette;

(c) Where it appears to the Census Officer that a supervisor or an enumerator is, by reason of illness or for any other reason, unfit to perform his duties under the Act, the Census Order and these regulations, the Census Officer may appoint some fit and proper person in his place to perform such duties.

Duties of supervisors.

5. It shall be the duty of every supervisor:-

(a) to give all necessary instructions to enumerators in his locality or localities;

(b) to issue to enumerators all census forms and other articles necessary for the taking of the Census;

(c) to examine, before midnight ending the Census Day, all entries made in census forms by enumerators and, where it appears upon examination that any entry in any form is defective or is missing, to require the enumerator responsible for completing the forms to take steps to correct the defective entry or to supply the missing entry before midnight ending the Census Day;

(d) following midnight ending the Census Day, to receive, examine and transmit to the Census Officer, all census forms and other articles delivered to him by the enumerators of his locality or localities;

(e) to provide such written reports and certificates with respect to the work of the enumerators in his locality or localities and to witness such declarations by the same enumerators as the Census Officer may in writing require him to do; and

(f) generally to carry out any instructions issued to him by the Census Officer for the purpose of taking the Census.

Duties of enumerators.

6. It shall be the duty of every enumerator –

(a) to meet the Census Officer or supervisor of the locality at such times and places as may be directed;

(b) to keep carefully any written instructions, books, forms, documents, or any other articles or things issued to him in connection with his duties and to deliver them in good condition upon the termination of his appointment or when called upon to do so;

(c) personally to visit at all reasonable times in the period between his appointment and midnight ending the Census Day every housing accommodation in the locality, enumeration area or areas to which he may be assigned and to obtain all information necessary for completing the census forms;

(d) to make further visits to housing accommodation when at a first visit the required information cannot be obtained, or which may be directed by the supervisor to revisit for the purpose of supplying omissions or correcting or verifying doubtful entries in the census forms;

(e) after midnight ending the Census Day again to visit personally at all reasonable times every housing accommodation in the locality, enumeration area or areas to which he may be assigned and by deleting, amending or adding to the entries previously made in the forms specified in the First Schedule to these regulations, to obtain a true and complete account of:

(i) all persons who were present at midnight ending the Census Day in the said housing accommodation;

(ii) all persons who at midnight ending the Census Day, were absent from the housing accommodation occupied by the household of which they form part; and

(iii) the use which was being made at midnight ending the Census Day of all housing accommodation with respect to which particulars are to be obtained;

(f) if so directed by the supervisor, to assist in the performance of the duties of any enumerator in any other locality or enumeration area;

(g) generally to carry out such instructions of the Census Officer and of the supervisor of the locality as may be issued for the purpose of taking the Census:

Provided that in any locality or enumeration area in which the enumerator may be assisted, at the direction of the supervisor, by any other enumerator, paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) of this regulation shall be understood to apply jointly to the enumerator of the locality or enumeration area and to such other enumerator.

Oath to be taken by supervisors and enumerators.

7. Every supervisor and enumerator shall, before entering on his duties, make and subscribe in the presence of the Census Officer an oath in the form set out in the Second Schedule hereto.

Duty to give information.

8. Every person with respect to whom census information is required to be furnished by article 4 of the Census Order shall give such information with respect to himself or herself, upon demand to a supervisor or enumerator duly appointed under regulation 4 hereof and acting in accordance with his duties under regulation 5 or 6 hereof.

Duty to give information with respect to other persons and to housing accommodation.

9. Every person being a person required by article 5 of the Census Order to furnish census information with respect to other persons and to housing accommodation shall furnish such information upon demand to a supervisor or enumerator duly appointed under regulation 4 hereof and acting in accordance with his duties under regulation 5 or 6 hereof.

Duty to give information to prescribed persons.

10. Every person with respect to whom it is the duty of the person prescribed by article 5 of the Census Order to furnish census information shall give the information upon demand to such prescribed persons.

Provided that any person present at midnight ending the Census Day on the premises of any hotel, boarding-house, guesthouse, hospital, nursing home or similar institution may, by oral request to the supervisor or enumerator of the census locality or enumerating area, or by written application to the Census Officer, elect to furnish only his or her name, status within the institution and sex to the prescribed person and the rest of the census information personally to the aforesaid supervisor or enumerator.

Census forms.

11. The census forms shall contain the details specified in the forms in the First Schedule hereto or such elements thereof as the Census Officer may deem appropriate.

Revokes L.N. 166
of 1995.

12. The Census Regulations, 1995 are hereby revoked.

▲ Fill in only if printed details are incorrect or are missing

The census is carried out every ten years and is a count of all persons and private dwellings in Malta. The information collected enables a better understanding of our current living conditions. The results are used for the formulation of policy, mainly in the education, health and social services sectors. They are also used at local government level.

You are asked to fill in the questionnaire and to hand it over to the enumerator who will be visiting you between 21st November and 11th December. Should you encounter any difficulty, you may approach the enumerator or alternatively, you may contact us. The enumerator may also assist you in filling in the questionnaire. Enumerators may be identified by means of the official identity card that they are obliged to wear during their visits.

The census is being carried out in terms of the Census Act of 1948. It is your duty to provide all the requested information. The information that you provide is strictly confidential and no-one, except the National Statistics Office, will have access to it.

Thank you for your participation.

NOTES

HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS

- The information provided in respect of all household members should be correct as at midnight of the 27th November 2005.
- Include those persons who normally reside at this address and those who are temporarily away, e.g. on holiday, etc.
- A person who lives in more than one dwelling should be included in the dwelling where he/she spends most nights.
- Include visitors who will not be included at any other address and who have been staying in Malta for a period of at least one year from the 27th November 2005.
- Include also persons who form part of this household, such as students who are either living at another address or who are abroad. Exclude persons who have emigrated.
- Include babies who were born before and up to midnight of the 27th November 2005, even if these are still in hospital.

GUIDELINES ON ANSWERING THE QUESTIONNAIRE

- Use blue or black ink. Do NOT use a pencil.
- A separate column in the questionnaire should be filled in for each household member.
- Mark the box/boxes that are applicable in this manner ☒. In case of an error mark the box in this manner ☐ and then proceed to mark the correct answer in this manner ☒.
- A box with a number inside it, for example 8, which is located next to a response, indicates the question that you must go to next if you select that answer. For example:

5	Are you male or female?	☐ ₁ Male → go to	8	→ Means go to question number 8 and continue
	(mark ☒ one ONLY)	☐ ₂ Female → go to	6	→ Means go to question number 6 and continue

- Where you are instructed to write, use block letters, for example: BIRKIRKARA, CLERK, etc.

OTHER INFORMATION

- Person number 1, or the reference person, should be selected as follows:
 - The husband/wife in the case of a married couple.
 - Either partner of a cohabiting couple.
 - The parent in the case of a single-parent household.
 - If none of the above conditions apply, person number 1 should be a mature member of the household.
- The questionnaire should be filled in by the reference person or by another mature person within the household.
- The questionnaire takes around 25 minutes to complete.
- Each questionnaire covers up to 6 persons. In the case of a household with more than 6 persons, ask the enumerator for a continuation form of the questionnaire or contact us for same.
- A different questionnaire has to be completed for each group of persons, or individuals, residing in the same dwelling but who do not share their expenditure on everyday meals. In this case, the dwellings section is to be completed in the first questionnaire only.
- If you do not know how to answer or have not understood a question, consult the enumerator or contact us on ☎ freephone 300 for assistance.
- The census is being carried out in terms of the Census Act of 1948. You are obliged by law to provide all the requested information. The information that you provide will be kept strictly confidential and no-one, except the National Statistics Office, shall have access to it.
