"zone of countries" means a zone of countries as may be determined by an insurance rule made by the competent authority by virtue of sub-article (3) of article 4 of the Act for the purposes of any provision of any regulation made under the Act, and the words and expressions which are also used in the Act shall, in these regulations, have the same meanings as in the Act.

Applicability.

3. Every insurer or pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta:

(a) which is a participating undertaking in at least one insurer, pure reinsurer, EEA insurer, EEA pure reinsurer, non-EEA insurer or non-EEA pure reinsurer;

(b) the parent undertaking of which is an insurance holding company, a non-EEA insurer or a non-EEA pure reinsurer;

(c) the parent undertaking of which is a mixed-activity insurance holding company, shall be subject to supplementary supervision in accordance with regulation 4 of these regulations:

Provided that, in each case the exercise of supplementary supervision shall not imply that the competent authority is required to carry out a supervisory role in relation to the non-EEA insurer, non-EEA pure reinsurer, insurance holding company or mixed activity insurance holding company taken individually.

Supplementary supervision.

4. (1) The supplementary supervision shall take into account:

(a) related undertakings of an insurer or of a pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta;

(b) participating undertakings in an insurer or in a pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta; and

(c) related undertakings of a participating undertaking in an insurer or in a pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta.

(2) Without prejudice to regulation 6 of these regulations, the competent authority may decide not to take into account in the supplementary supervision referred to in sub-regulation (1) of this regulation, non-EEA insurers or non-EEA pure reinsurers where there are legal impediments to the transfer of the necessary information.

(3) Every insurer or pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta, subject to supplementary supervision shall have adequate internal control mechanisms in place for the production of any data and information relevant for the purposes of such supplementary supervision.

(4) Undertakings that are subject to supplementary supervision and their related undertakings and participating undertakings shall exchange among themselves any information relevant for the purposes of such supplementary supervision.

(5) (a) The competent authority shall have access to any information which would be relevant for the purpose of supervision of an insurer or a pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta, subject to supplementary supervision;

(b) The competent authority may address itself directly to the relevant undertakings referred to in sub-regulation (4) of this regulation, to obtain the necessary information only if such information has been requested from the insurer or the pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta, and has not been supplied by such undertaking.

(6) The competent authority may carry out, in Malta, itself, or through an inspector appointed in terms of article 30 of the Act, on-the-spot verification of information referred to in sub-regulation (3) of this regulation at:

(a) the insurer or the pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta, subject to supplementary supervision;

(b) subsidiary undertakings of that insurer or pure reinsurer;

(c) parent undertakings of that insurer or pure reinsurer; and

(d) subsidiary undertakings of a parent undertaking of that insurer or pure reinsurer.

(7) (a) Where the foreign authority wishes to verify information concerning an undertaking situated in Malta which is a related insurance undertaking, a related reinsurance undertaking, a subsidiary undertaking, a parent undertaking or a subsidiary undertaking of a parent undertaking of the insurance undertaking or the reinsurance undertaking subject to supplementary supervision, the foreign authority may request the competent authority to have that verification carried out on its behalf;

(b) The competent authority may allow the foreign authority making the request to carry out on-the-spot verification itself or by allowing an auditor or expert to carry it out;

(c) The foreign authority making the request may participate in the verification when it does not carry out the verification itself.

General supervision and reporting to the competent authority.

5. (1) General supervision shall be carried out by the competent authority over transactions between:

(a) an insurer or a pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta; and

(i) a related undertaking of that insurer or pure reinsurer;

(ii) a participating undertaking in that insurer or pure reinsurer;

(iii) a related undertaking of a participating undertaking in that insurer or pure reinsurer;

(b) an insurer a pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta, and a natural person who holds a participation in:

(i) that insurer, pure reinsurer or any of its related undertakings;

(ii) a participating undertaking in that insurer or pure reinsurer;

(iii) a related undertaking of a participating undertaking in that insurer or pure reinsurer.

(2) An insurer or a pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta, shall provide the competent authority with a declaration of the following information in respect of itself and, subject to the exceptions in sub-regulation (3) of this regulation, in respect of each member of the insurance group:

(a) the name, location of head office and principal activity;

(b) the relationship with each other member of the insurance group, including the amounts and descriptions of holdings of share capital and voting rights;

(c) loans between members of the insurance group;

(d) guarantees and off-balance sheet transactions between members of the insurance group;

(e) investments between members of the insurance group;

(f) reinsurance operations between members of the insurance group;

(g) agreements to share costs between members of the insurance group;

(h) whether the member of the group is a subsidiary undertaking of the ultimate insurance parent undertaking and, if different, of the ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking;

(i) subject to sub-regulation (3) of this regulation, the ultimate insurance parent undertaking's proportional share of, or if the group member is a subsidiary undertaking of that parent the whole of, any solvency deficit;

(j) subject to sub-regulation (3) of this regulation, the ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking's proportional share of, or if the group member is a subsidiary undertaking of that parent the whole of, any solvency deficit; and

(k) a statement that:

(i) the declaration has been properly prepared in accordance with this regulation; and

(ii) proper records have been maintained and adequate information obtained by the insurer or the pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta, for the purpose of the declaration required by this regulation.

(3) Paragraphs (i) and (j) of sub-regulation (2) of this regulation shall not apply with respect to a group member, other than the insurer with head office in Malta or the pure reinsurer with head office in Malta, where:

(a) the parent undertaking solvency calculation in relation to the ultimate insurance parent undertaking or the ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking, as the case may be, is positive;

(b) the group member is not a parent undertaking of the insurer or the pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta;

(c) the group member is not a participating undertaking in the insurer or the pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta;

(d) the group member is not a related undertaking of the insurer or the pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta;

(e) the group member's solvency deficit does not exceed 5% of the positive parent undertaking solvency calculation in relation to the ultimate insurance parent undertaking or the ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking, as the case may be; and

(f) the insurer or the pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta, has complied with paragraphs (i) or (j) of sub-regulation (2) of this regulation, as the case may be, in relation to sufficient group members so that the sum of the solvency deficits in the remaining group members does not exceed 10% of the positive parent undertaking solvency calculation in relation to the ultimate insurance parent undertaking or the ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking, as the case may be.

(4) Subject to sub-regulations (6), (7), (8) and (9) of this regulation, the declaration required by sub-regulation (2) of this regulation shall also include:

(a) calculations ("the parent undertaking solvency calculations") in respect of each of the ultimate insurance parent undertaking and ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking of the value of its surplus assets, determined in accordance with the requirements of Part IX of the Regulations (other than paragraphs (a) to (c) of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 54), less:

(i) any provision for related undertakings valued on the basis of regulations 60 or 77 of the Regulations, except to the extent already allowed for in the value of surplus assets; and

(ii) where the surplus assets are valued at nil, the amount of any deficit in the assets available to cover:

(aa) any liabilities not already provided for; and

(bb) the notional required minimum margin, if any, of the ultimate insurance parent undertaking or the ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking, as the case may be; and

(b) if either of the parent undertaking solvency calculations is negative, a statement as to the reasons why such deficit or deficits has or have arisen and of any remedial action taken or planned.

(5) The information and calculations required under this regulation must be provided by not later than six months from the end of:

(a) the financial year in question; or

(b) the financial year of the ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking; or

(c) the financial year of the ultimate insurance parent undertaking.

(6) If the foreign authority has agreed to be the supervisor responsible for exercising supplementary supervision of the EEA insurer or the EEA pure reinsurer under sub-article (2) of article 4 of the Insurance Groups Directive or, where no such agreement has been reached, but:

(a) the head office of the ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking is situated in an EEA State, other than Malta, and that parent is itself an insurance undertaking or a reinsurance undertaking; or

(b) where that parent is not an insurance undertaking or a reinsurance undertaking, and another member of the insurance group is an EEA insurer or an EEA pure reinsurer, and that member:

(i) is a parent undertaking of the insurer or the pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta; or

(ii) has a notional required minimum margin which exceeds the notional required minimum margin of the insurer or the pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta, and, in each case, that insurance undertaking or reinsurance undertaking may provide the information and calculations required under paragraphs (i) and (j) of sub-regulation (2) of this regulation and the parent undertaking solvency calculation in relation to the ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking prepared in accordance with the requirements of the EEA State of supplementary supervision or of the relevant head office for:

(i) the valuation of assets and the determination of liabilities of insurance undertakings, reinsurance undertakings and insurance holding companies; and

(ii) the calculation of the required minimum solvency margin of insurance undertakings or reinsurance undertakings.

(7) If the head office of the ultimate insurance parent undertaking is situated in a country within the zone of countries other than an EEA State, then the insurance undertaking or the reinsurance undertaking may provide:

(a) the parent undertaking solvency calculation, in accordance with the provisions of Part XI of the Regulations, in relation to the ultimate insurance parent undertaking prepared in accordance with accounting practice applicable for the purposes of the supervision of insurance undertakings or reinsurance undertakings in the state or territory of the head office:

(i) adapted as necessary to apply the general principles set out in paragraphs 1.B, 1.C, and 1.D of Annex I of the Insurance Groups Directive; and

(ii) using the deduction and aggregation method or the accounting consolidation-based method set out in Annex I of the Insurance Groups Directive; and

(b) the solvency deficits under paragraph (i) of sub-regulation (2) of this regulation prepared in accordance with the requirements:

(i) for the valuation of assets and the determination of liabilities of insurance undertakings, reinsurance undertakings and insurance holding companies; and

(ii) for the calculation of the required minimum solvency margin of insurance undertakings and reinsurance undertakings, in the state or territory where the ultimate insurance parent undertaking's head office is situated.

(8) If the head office of the insurance undertaking or the head office of the reinsurance undertaking's ultimate insurance parent undertaking is not situated in Malta or in a country within the zone of countries, then the undertaking may provide the parent undertaking solvency calculation in relation to the ultimate insurance parent undertaking prepared in accordance with the requirements of Part IX of the Regulations (other than paragraphs (a) to (c) of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 54 of the Regulations).

(9) If the ultimate insurance parent undertaking or, as the case may be, the ultimate EEA insurance parent undertaking of the insurance undertaking or the reinsurance undertaking is itself an insurer or pure reinsurer to which Part IX of the Regulations apply, then the insurance undertaking or the reinsurance undertaking is not required to provide a parent undertaking solvency calculation in relation to that parent.

(10) The declarations required by sub-regulations (2) and (4) of this regulation:

(a) subject to paragraph (c), must be signed by, where there are more than two directors of the company, at least two of those directors and, where there are not more than two directors, all the directors; and

(b) subject to sub-regulation (11) of this regulation, must include a statement from the auditors of the insurance undertaking or the reinsurance undertaking, or of an undertaking under paragraph (c) of this sub-regulation that, in their opinion, it has been properly compiled in accordance with this regulation from information provided by members of the insurance group and from the insurance undertaking or the reinsurance undertaking's own records; and

(c) may be provided on behalf of the insurance undertaking or the reinsurance undertaking (the first insurance undertaking or reinsurance undertaking) by any other insurance undertaking or reinsurance undertaking to which this regulation applies and which is a member of the insurance group (the second insurance undertaking or reinsurance undertaking) where:

(i) it is signed by two directors of the second insurance undertaking or reinsurance undertaking; and

(ii) it contains a statement that it has been copied to the board of directors of the first insurance undertaking or reinsurance undertaking.

(11) The statement under paragraph (b) of sub-regulation (10) of this regulation need not include the parent undertaking solvency calculation or a calculation with respect to that parent under paragraphs (i) or (j) of sub-regulation (2) of this regulation:

(a) where the parent undertaking solvency calculation is provided in accordance with sub-regulation (6) of this regulation; and

(b) to the extent that a statement is provided from auditors qualified in the EEA State of supplementary supervision or of the relevant head office, that in their opinion the calculation complies with the requirements applicable in that State to the preparation of solvency calculations for insurance groups pursuant to the Insurance Groups Directive.

(12) Without prejudice to sub-regulation (3) of regulation 4, and for the purposes of sub-regulations (1) and (2) of this regulation, insurance undertakings and reinsurance undertakings shall have in place adequate risk management processes and internal control mechanisms, including sound reporting and accounting procedures, in order to identify, measure, monitor and control transactions.

Availability of information and powers of intervention.

6. (1) Where any information necessary for any of the calculations required by these regulations or Part XI of the Regulations, concerning a related undertaking with its registered office in an EEA State or a non-EEA State, is not available to the competent authority, for whatever reason, the book value of that undertaking in the participating undertaking shall be deducted from the elements eligible for the calculation provided for under regulation 43 of the Regulations. In that case, the unrealised gains connected with such participation shall not be allowed as an element eligible for the calculation.

(2) If, on the basis of any of the calculations provided for in Part IX of the Regulations, it results that the solvency of a subsidiary insurer whose head office is in Malta or a subsidiary pure reinsurer whose head office is in Malta, of the insurance holding company, the non-EEA insurer or the non-EEA pure reinsurer is, or may be, jeopardised, the competent authority shall take appropriate measures at the level of the insurer or the pure reinsurer, whose head office is in Malta.

7. The purpose of these regulations is to implement the provisions of Directive 98/78/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of the 27th October, 1998 on the supplementary supervision of insurance and reinsurance undertakings in an insurance or reinsurance group which shall be interpreted and applied accordingly. Implementation of Council Directives.

8. Saving the provisions of this regulation, the Insurance Business (Supplementary Supervision of Insurance Undertakings in an Insurance Group) Regulations, 2004 are hereby repealed. Repeals L.N. 311 of 2004.
