Eligible customers who wish to be charged under tariff 4 are to inform the Chairman in the manner and form prescribed by the Corporation.

3. For the purposes of this Schedule -

"maximum demand made in any period" means twice the greatest number of Board of Trade units supplied during any thirty consecutive minutes during the year or, as the case may be, the quarter, as registered, in respect of any industrial premises, by the maximum demand indicator of the meter installed in such premises by Enemalta:

Provided that -

(a) where the seal of a maximum demand indicator is found broken or tampered with, the indicator shall be conclusively deemed to have registered the highest demand in KW which it is capable of registering; and

(b) where a maximum demand indicator is found to be defective, for reasons other than breaking or tampering, the maximum demand made in any period during the last preceding year or, as the case may be, the last preceding corresponding quarter, shall, unless it is otherwise agreed between the Chairman and the consumer, apply to the year or, as the case may be, the quarter in relation to which such indicator is found to be defective, until the indicator is repaired or replaced by Enemalta;

"reading" means a reading of a maximum demand indicator by an officer authorised by the Chairman in that behalf;

"year" means a period of approximately twelve consecutive months ending on a day not earlier than the 24th day of March and not later than the 7th day of April on which a reading is carried out.

4. Where owing to the date of commencement or of termination of a supply of electricity to industrial premises, a reading cannot be carried out in respect of a period of approximately twelve months or, as the case may be, of approximately thirteen consecutive weeks, a proportionate charge shall be made at the yearly rate or at the quarterly rate respectively as follows.

(a) in the case of a commencement of supply, for the period from such commencement to the date of the reading; and

(b) in the case of a termination of supply, for the period from the last preceding reading up to the date of termination.

5. A fuel surcharge, at a rate of 50% on the net billed consumption of water and electricity during a determined period:

Provided that in the case of factories the applicable surcharge shall not exceed the amount of €48,916 per annum.

6. Tariffs mentioned in this Schedule shall be deemed to be exclusive of Value Added Tax.".

20. The Water Supply Regulations (S.L. 423.03) shall be amended as follows:

(a) for the First Schedule thereof, there shall be substituted the following new schedule:

"FIRST SCHEDULE

(Regulation 12)

Domestic Supplies - Tariff for Service Charge and Water Consumption incorporating drainage contribution

1. In every period of four months:

(a) the service charge in respect of every tenement, for every service installed in the tenement, shall be €9.32;

(b) the charge for water consumption shall be as follows:

for any quantity not exceeding 11m^3 per person residing in the tenement ..... €0.0384 per 1 m^3;

for any quantity exceeding the said quantity of 11m^3 per person residing in the tenement ..... €2.562 per 1 m^3:

Provided that, where it results that there are more than four persons residing in a tenement, the bill for water consumption relative to that tenement shall carry a rebate, in every period of four months, for every person more than four residing in such tenement, as follows:

during the year 1998 ..... €3.26

during the year 1999 ..... €2.56

during the year 2000 ..... €1.40:

so, however, that the charge for water consumption in such tenement shall never be less than zero.

2. For the purposes of paragraph 1, the following provisions shall apply with respect to the calculation of the number of persons residing in a tenement:

(a) a consumer shall furnish in writing to the Corporation, within such time as may be stipulated by the Corporation, any information together with any supporting documents which may be required by the Corporation for the purpose of such calculation;

(b) a consumer shall notify the Corporation in writing of any change in the circumstances, on the basis of which such calculation is made, not later than one month from when such change occurs;

(c) any change in the number of persons residing in a tenement shall be taken into account, for the purpose of such calculation, from the date of the first normal meter reading following the date on which the change in the number of persons occurs or the date on which the Corporation is notified in writing of such a change, at the discretion of the Corporation;

(d) if in accordance with the provisions of these regulations, there is no person residing in the tenement as his principal permanent residence, it shall be deemed that one person resides in that particular tenement;

(e) a person residing in a tenement may apply to the Corporation so that he shall be deemed to be residing in a tenement other than that in which he resides;

(f) any application referred to in sub-paragraph (e) shall be made in such form as may be issued by the Corporation from time to time;

(g) every arrangement made in terms of sub-paragraph (e) shall be valid until the 3lst December of the year in which it was made or for which it was renewed, and it shall be deemed to have been renewed for the next following year unless the consumer, not later than the last day of November of the year in which the arrangement is in force, gives notice in writing to the Corporation that he does not want the said arrangement to be so renewed.

3. Where a consumer, irrespective of his age, satisfies the Director (Social Security) that he is neither employed nor self-employed, and that he forms a single person family, or lives together with his wife or her husband, if there is one, to the exclusion of other members, and that he is in receipt of an income which when calculated according to the second part of the Second Schedule of the Social Security Act entitles him or his wife, as the case may be, to such assistance, such consumer, in any period of four months, shall be entitled to a rebate as follows:

€9.32 service charge for one service installed in the premises

€0.384 per 1 m^3 for any quantity of water consumed not exceeding 5.5 m^3 per person residing in the tenement:

Provided that no such rebate shall be granted unless the Director (Social Security) certifies the consumer to be entitled to the said rebate under these provisions or where the Director (Social Security) deems that other members living with the consumer form a separate family:

Provided also that the Minister responsible for social security may allow the said rebate in respect of such charitable institutions as the said Minister may declare to be financially meritorious."; and

(b) for the Second Schedule thereof, there shall be substituted the following new schedule:
