L.N. 47 of 1996

IDENTITY CARD ACT
(CAP. 258)

Identity Cards (Issue and Validity) Regulations, 1996

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 13 of the Identity Card Act, the Prime Minister has made the following regulations:—

Citation.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Identity Cards (Issue and Validity) Regulations, 1996.

Interpretation.

2. For the purposes of these regulations, the term "listed locality" means a locality listed in Locality A, Locality B or Locality C as appearing in the Schedule to these regulations, and the area of such locality shall be such area as is defined for each particular locality in the Local Councils Act, 1993.

Act No. XV of 1993.

Validity and issue of identity cards.

3. (1) Notwithstanding the specific dates shown on each identity card issued during the years 1995 and 1996 indicating that the validity thereof expires on a particular date during the years 2000, 2001 and 2002, all such identity cards shall expire as shown hereunder according to the listed locality where the holder resides as appearing in the Schedule to these regulations:

(a) Locality A, on the day and month indicated on the card but in the year 2000; and

(b) Locality B, on the day and month indicated on the card but in the year 2001; and

(c) Locality C, on the day and month indicated on the card but in the year 2002, and after the years 2000, 2001 and 2002, as the case may be, every six years thereafter in such manner that all the identity cards of residents in any particular locality shall always expire during the same year.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of this regulation, where an identity card has been issued in respect of —

(a) a person under the age of sixteen years, such identity card shall cease to be valid upon the sixteenth birthday of the holder thereof; and

(b) a person under the age of eighteen years, such identity card shall cease to be valid upon the eighteenth birthday of the holder thereof.
