

L.N. 191 of 1995

TELEMALTA CORPORATION ACT
(CAP. 250)

Telephone Service (Amendment) (No. 6) Regulations, 1995

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 37 of the Telemalta Corporation Act, the Board, with the approval of the Minister for Transport, Communications and Technology and with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, has made the following regulations: —

Citation and commencement.

L.N. 47
of 1972.

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Telephone Service (Amendment) (No.6) Regulations 1995, and shall be read and construed as one with the Telephone Service Regulations 1972, hereinafter referred to as “the principal regulations”.

(2) These regulations shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st December, 1995.

Adds new regulation 52A to the principal regulations.

2. Immediately after regulation 52 of the principal regulations there shall be inserted the following new regulation: —

“Special schemes.

52A. Nothing contained in these regulations and nothing specified in any of the Schedules hereto or in any other regulations published under the Telemalta Corporation Act shall prevent the Chairman, upon obtaining the approval of the Minister responsible for telecommunications, from introducing from time to time and under such terms and conditions as he may consider appropriate, any special incentive schemes, including any discount schemes incentivating increased use of the telephone service or encouraging early settlement of the relative bills, or any other special schemes for any reason which the Chairman may deem opportune and, in a like manner, nothing shall prevent him from withdrawing any such scheme or amending any of the terms and conditions thereof at any time this may be considered necessary or expedient.”.
