

L.N. 145 of 1993

CODE OF POLICE LAWS (Chapter 10)

Hunting Licences Regulations, 1993

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 214 of the Code of Police Laws, the Minister for Home Affairs and Social Development, with the concurrence of the Minister for the Environment, has made the following regulations:—

Citation and Commencement.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Hunting Licences Regulations, 1993, and shall come into force on the 1st January, 1994.

Conditions for the issue of a hunting licence.

2. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of any other law, no person shall shoot, or attempt to shoot, by any means whatsoever, any game unless such person is in possession of a valid hunting licence (hereinafter referred to as "licence") issued by the Commissioner, and such person satisfies all the conditions specified in the licence and in any other law.

(2) Any person who applies for a licence may be asked to sit for a practical examination to determine his knowledge on the use and safe-carrying of firearms, the necessary protection measures required for carrying a firearm, and his ability to identify birds and his knowledge of regulations for the protection of fauna.

(3) A licence shall not be issued or renewed unless the applicant has been issued with an insurance policy against injury to third parties or damage to their property, and has a reference from a legally constituted organisation representing hunters.
