

L.N. 52 of 1992

SUPPLIES AND SERVICES ACT (CAP. 117)Importation (Control) (Amendment)(No. 2) Regulations, 1992

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Supplies and Services Act, the Minister of Finance has made the following regulations:—

Citation.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Importation (Control) (Amendment) (No. 2) Regulations, 1992, and shall be read and construed as one with the Importation (Control) Regulations, 1969, hereinafter referred to as “the principal regulations”.

L.N. 48
of 1969.Adds new regulation 5A to the principal regulations.

2. Immediately after regulation 5 of the principal regulations there shall be added the following new regulation:—

“General prohibition. 5A. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other regulation, the importation of any goods into these islands from any destination, where the importation of such goods from such destination is prohibited by a resolution of the Security Council of the United Nations under Chapter VII of the United Nations Charter is hereby prohibited and no licence shall be issued for such importation.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) of this regulation, the Director shall by notice in the Gazette publish from time to time a reference to any resolution to which the said paragraph applies.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other regulation, the importation into these islands of any goods landed for transshipment to a destination, where the exportation of such goods to such destination is prohibited in terms of regulation 3A of the Exportation (Control) Regulations, 1948, is hereby prohibited.”

G.N. 668
of 1948.Amends
the Schedule
to the principal
regulations.

3. In the Schedule to the principal regulations for the words shown against Harmonised System Code No.22.02 there shall be substituted the words “Grape juice, grape nectar; non-alcoholic beverages containing any milk or milk products; soft drinks not contained in glass bottles”.