IN exercise of the powers conferred upon him by sections 28(5) and 29(6) of the Education Act, 1988, the Chancellor of the University of Malta has promulgated the following statute made by the Council of the University of Malta in virtue of the powers conferred upon it by section 31 of the said Act.

Citation

This statute may be cited as the Statute amending Statute 7 of the University of Malta.

STATUTE AMENDING STATUTE 7 — ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS AND PROMOTIONS

Citation

This Statute may be cited as the Statute amending Statute 7 of the University of Malta and shall be read and construed as one with the Statutes of the University of Malta included in Schedule III of the Education Act, 1988.

Amendment No. 3 to Statute 7

1. Immeditely after paragraph 7.3 Appointment of Part-time Visiting Staff, there shall be inserted the following new paragraphs:

"7.4 Visiting Professors

1. Foreign or local scholars of professional rank or distinction may be appointed Visiting Professors by a resolution of Council on the recommendation of Senate.

2. A Visiting Professor will be expected to contribute to the activities of the University in one or more of the following ways:

(a) through sets of lectures or intensive short courses;

(b) through participation in the supervision or completion of research programmes; and

(c) through expert advice and consultance tendered to the authorities of the University.

3. A Visiting Professor will be entitled to:

(a) the academic prerogatives of Professors insofar as a regular presence on the campus is not required for their exercise; and

(b) such honoraria as may be established by Council for each specific task.

7.5 Honorary Professors

1. Foreign or local scholars of professional rank or distinction may be appointed Honorary Professors by a resolution of Council on the recommendation of Senate.

2. An Honorary Professor will be expected to contribute to the activities of the University in any way that will enhance its service and prestige, in accord with the competent authorities.

3. An Honorary Professor will be entitled to such academic prerogatives of Professors as are not attached to specific duties.

7.6 Emeritus Professors

1. Professors who retire after at least ten years of service at that grade or, if they retire before, by resolution of Senate, will become Emeritus Professors.

2. An Emeritus Professor is entitled to the same prerogatives as an Honorary Professor.

3. An Emeritus Professor shall take precedence in all public ceremonies of the University immediately after the members of Senate."

2. The present paragraph 7.4 General shall be renumbered 7.7.
