L.N. 5 of 1991

EDUCATION ACT, 1988
(ACT NO. XXIV OF 1988)

University Students (Rates of Stipends) Regulations, 1991

IN exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (3) of section 39 of the Education Act, 1988 the Minister of Education and the Interior, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, has made the following regulations:—

Citation.

1. These regulations may be cited as the University Students (Rates of Stipends) Regulations, 1991.

Payment of stipends.

2. There shall be paid the stipends indicated in the Schedule to these regulations to students who follow courses at the University of Studies of Malta who —

(a) are Maltese citizens, and

(b) have registered as regular students for a full-time day course on or after the 1st October, 1987 or are following the Foundation Studies Course, and

(c) are attending regularly and making satisfactory progress, and

(d) are not in receipt of other remuneration for services rendered to third parties during the academic year, excluding the Summer Recess:

Provided that in the case of paragraph (d) above, a student may be allowed to receive other remuneration if the work performed does not interfere with his duties as a full-time student, and that when such permission is granted, a sum equivalent to the remuneration received by such student from the other source shall be deducted from his stipend.

Periods of payment.

3. (1) Stipends are paid during the academic year, including the Christmas and Easter Recesses, but excluding the Summer Recess.

(2) Where the structure of particular courses so warrant, the Minister responsible for education may approve the payment of a stipend also during the Summer Recess.

Courses of the same level.

4. With effect from the 1st October, 1991, students pursuing a second or subsequent course after having completed or partially followed another course of the same level, shall only be entitled to receive half the stipend for that period of time that is equivalent to the period spent in the previous course, if for that previous course they were in receipt of a stipend. Such students shall only be entitled to a full stipend for the remaining period of time after termination of the first period of half stipend.
