L.N. 29 of 1991

CUSTOMS ORDINANCE (CAP. 37)

Officers of Customs (Assignment of Powers) Regulations, 1991

IN exercise of the powers conferred by sections 80 and 85 of the Customs Ordinance, the President of Malta has made the following regulations:—

Citation.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Officers of Customs (Assignment of Powers) Regulations, 1991.

Assignment of Police powers.

2. Every officer of Customs shall, in addition to the powers and duties assigned to him under the Customs Ordinance, be empowered to exercise all the powers and duties as are by law vested in an Officer of the Executive Police in any place set out in the Schedule to these regulations in connection with an offence committed or suspected of having been committed:

Provided that such functions, powers and duties as are by law reserved to officers holding the rank not below that of Inspector of Police shall only be exerciseable by officials not below the rank of Officer I.

Revokes L.N. 41 of 1979.

3. The Officers of Customs (Assignment of Powers) Regulations, 1979, are hereby revoked.
