L.N. 5 of 1990

FEES ORDINANCE (CAP. 35)

Fees (Examination of Video and Cinematographic Material) Regulations, 1990

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 of the Fees Ordinance, the Minister of Finance and the Minister for Development of Infrastructure have made the following regulations:—

Citation.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Fees (Examination of Video and Cinematographic Material) Regulations, 1990.

Fees chargeable.

2. (1) There shall be charged by the Comptroller of Customs or by the Postmaster General, as the case may be, for the examination of all types of video recordings, exposed celluloid film, and any other similar type of material, the following fees:

(i) on every item, professionally produced and of a commercial nature, including programmes and films recorded abroad from foreign television stations Lm1.00

(ii) on every item of a purely personal nature, relating to family events and social occasions, and intended for domestic purposes, and not intended for resale ..... Lm0.50.

(2) Any fee charged under paragraph (1) of this regulation shall be levied once only for the examination of identical copies of the same material imported in the same consignment.

Exemptions.

3. The fees indicated under regulation 2 of these regulations shall not be payable if such material consists of the following:

(a) video recordings, exposed celluloid film or any other similar type of material of an educational, scientific or cultural character produced by the United Nations or any of its specialized agencies; or

(b) video recordings, exposed celluloid film or any other similar type of material of an educational nature imported by the University of Malta; or

(c) video recordings, exposed celluloid film or any other similar type of material of an educational nature imported by private schools, provided that the Director of Education certifies that —

(i) such school is licensed by the Government, and

(ii) the materials are solely of an educational nature and are to be used solely and entirely by such school for educational purposes; or

(d) video recordings, exposed celluloid film or any other similar type of material for language courses.

Revokes L.N. 34 of 1985.

4. The Fees (Examination of Video and Cinematographic Material) Regulations, 1985 are hereby revoked.
