L.N. 146 of 1989

EDUCATION ACT, 1988

(ACT No. XXIV of 1988)

Regulations for the Diploma in Religious Studies (Dip.Rel.Stud.)

IN exercise of the powers conferred upon him by sections 28(5) and 29(6) of the Education Act, 1988, the Chancellor of the University of Malta has promulgated the following regulations made by the Senate of the University of Malta in virtue of the powers conferred upon it by section 33 of the said Act:—

Citation

These regulations may be cited as the Regulations for the Diploma in Religious Studies (Dip.Rel.Stud.) and shall be applicable to courses which started in October, 1985 or later.

1. The Regulations applicable for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies (B.A. (Rel. Stud.)) shall apply to students who take the course leading to the Diploma in Religious Studies (Dip. Rel. Stud.) with the folowing exceptions and variations:

(i) The programme of studies for the Diploma in Religious Studies (Dip. Rel. Stud.) shall be regulated as follows:

a) The course shall extend normally over the first two years of the Course for the Degree of B.A. in Religious Studies.

b) The syllabus for the Diploma shall be published concurrently with that of the B.A. for Religious Studies.

c) The complete list of study-units required for the Diploma in Religious Studies shall include courses corresponding to 24 credits and shall normally be taken from courses followed by students reading for the B.A. Degree in Religious Studies.

(ii) The written final examination shall be held at the end of the two year course, and shall consist of such papers as may be indicated in the syllabus.

(iii) The long essay to be submitted by the student shall be of not less than 3,000 words, and shall be submitted at least one month before the Final Examination, unless the Faculty Board, for good reason, allows it to be submitted at a later date.

(iv) The overall assessment of a candidate for the Diploma in Religious Studies shall take into account his performance at the semester examinations, at the Final Examination and in the Long Essay.

2. The present Regulations shall apply to students admitted to courses commencing in or after the 1st October 1985.
