

L.N. 19 of 1988

MEDICAL AND KINDRED PROFESSIONS ORDINANCE
(CAP. 51)

Training School for Registered (General) Nurses (Amendment)
Regulations, 1988

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 72 of the Medical and Kindred Professions Ordinance, the Minister for Social Policy, on the advice of the Nursing and Midwifery Board, has made the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Training School for Registered (General) Nurses (Amendment) Regulations, 1988 and shall be read and construed as one with the Training School for Registered (General) Nurses Regulations, 1986, hereinafter referred to as “the principal regulations”. Citation.
of 1986.

2. For paragraph (1) of regulation 14 of the principal regulations there shall be substituted the following: Amends regulation 14.

“(1) (i) No student nurse may sit for the Final Examination unless she shall have passed the Preliminary Examination and has applied to sit for such examination and submitted the relative certificate as provided for in regulation 19 of these regulations.

(ii) No student nurse may sit for the Final Examination unless the Nursing and Midwifery Board is satisfied that such student has undergone the required level of training.

For the purpose of this sub-paragraph, the Principal Nursing Tutor shall report to the said Board every six months, on the progress made by such student nurse, which report shall be in accordance with such format as may be required by the said Board.”.

3. For paragraph (2) of regulation 16 of the principal regulations there shall be substituted the following: Amends regulation 16.

“(2) (i) A student nurse who fails in any paper or in the practical and oral test of the Final Examination shall be allowed to sit again for that examination in any such paper or test if she produces a certificate from the Principal Nursing Tutor, to the satisfaction of the Nursing and Midwifery Board, that she has undergone further intensive training at a school:

Provided that no student nurse may avail herself of this concession to sit for such a supplementary examination at any time before the lapse of three months from the date on which she last sat for the said examination.

(ii) A student nurse who does not produce a certificate as is referred to in paragraph (i) above shall be entitled to sit for a supplementary examination in accordance with the other provisions of these regulations, at any session which is due in the normal course of events after the expiry of six months from the date of the session in which she last failed.

Provided that, however, no student nurse may avail herself of any of these concessions at any time later than three years from the date on which she first sat for the Final Examination.”.
