L.N. 22 of 1987

DOOR-TO-DOOR SALESMEN ACT, 1987

(ACT NO. VII OF 1987)

Door-to-Door Salesmen (Licences) Regulations, 1987

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 15 of the Door-to-Door Salesmen Act, 1987, the Minister of Trade and Economic Planning has made the following regulations:

Citation and commencement.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Door-to-Door Salesmen (Licences) Regulations, 1987, and shall come into force on the 15th day of March, 1987.

Applications for licences.

2. An application for the issue of a licence to act as a door-to-door salesman shall be made to the Director of Trade on a form which shall be obtained from the Director of Trade, and shall contain all the particulars stated in the said form, and be accompanied by all the documents indicated on the form.

Form of licence.

3. The licence to act as a door-to-door salesman shall be in the form as set out in Schedule I to these regulations.

Identification of door-to-door salesmen.

4. (1) A door-to-door salesman duly licenced in accordance with the Door-to-Door Salesmen Act, 1987, shall at all times during which he is making use of such licence carry with him an identity card which shall be issued by the Director of Trade.

(2) The identity card referred to in paragraph (1) of this regulation shall be in the form as set out in Schedule II to these regulations and shall be shown by the salesman to the consumer, at the request of the latter.

Applications for renewal of licences.

5. Applications for the renewal of licences to act as door-to-door salesmen shall be made to the Director of Trade on a form which shall be obtained from the Director of Trade, and shall contain all the particulars as stated in the said form, and be accompanied by all the documents indicated on the form.

Change of particulars.

6. (1) Where after an issue or renewal of a licence to act as a door-to-door salesman, there occurs a change in the particulars as set out in the relative application form, the holder of the licence shall forthwith notify the Director of Trade of the change in particulars.

(2) The Director of Trade may where applicable require the holder of the licence to surrender his licence and identity card, and shall note the change of particulars in the licence and identity card of the licensee, and return the same to the licensee.
