L.N. 104 of 1981

FEES ORDINANCE (CAP. 58)

Fees (Examination of Works of Art and Antiques) (Amendment) Regulations, 1981

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 of the Fees Ordinance, the Minister of Labour, Welfare and Culture, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, Customs and People's Financial Investments, has made the following regulations:—

Citation.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Fees (Examination of Works of Art and Antiques) (Amendment) Regulations, 1981, and shall be read and construed as one with the Fees (Examination of Works of Art and Antiques) Regulations, 1968, hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations".

L.N. 4 of 1968

Substitutes regulation 2 of the principal regulations.

2. For regulation 2 of the principal regulations there shall be substituted the following new regulation:

"Fees for examination of works of art and of antiques.

2. Where any work of art or any antique is examined by the Director of the Museum or his representative for the purpose of determining its age and/or its artistic value there shall be charged for such examination and paid to the Department of Museums an ad valorem fee of five per cent of its value as accepted by the Director of the Museum, together with such expenses as may be necessary in connection with such examination:

Provided that the fee so charged shall never be less than £1.".
