

L.N. 4 of 1980

MEDICAL AND KINDRED PROFESSIONS ORDINANCE(CAP. 51)*Training School for Registered (General) Nurses (Amendment)
Regulations, 1980

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 72 of the Medical and Kindred Professions Ordinance, the Minister of Health and Environment, on the advice of the Nursing and Midwifery Board, has made the following regulations:—

Citation.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Training School for Registered (General) Nurses (Amendment) Regulations, 1980, and shall be read and construed as one with the Training School for Registered (General) Nurses Regulations, 1971, hereinafter referred to as the "principal regulations".

L.N. 86 of 1971Substitutes
regulation 15
of the principal regulations.

2. For regulation 15 of the principal regulations there shall be substituted the following new regulation:

"Eligibility to Preliminary and Final Examinations. 15. (1) No student nurse may sit for the Preliminary Examination.

(2) No student nurse may sit for the Final Examination unless she shall have passed the Preliminary Examination:

Provided that no student nurse shall sit for the Final Examination if she has absented herself on sick leave or other cause (excluding vacation leave) in excess of an aggregate period of thirty days throughout the duration of the prescribed course of studies at the training school, unless she has made up for the excess absenteeism by attending for practical duties at a Government Hospital to the satisfaction of the Principal Nursing Tutor before sitting for the Final Examination:

Provided further that after making up for the excess absenteeism, such student nurse shall not be entitled to a special session of the Final Examination but may sit at a session not earlier than that which is due in the normal course of events.

(3) Any student nurse may make up for the excess absenteeism, referred to in paragraph (2) of this regulation, or for any part thereof, by forfeiting an equivalent number of days of vacation leave to which she may be entitled.

(4) Any excess absenteeism existing before the coming into force of these regulations shall not be considered for the purpose of this regulation."