

L.N. 5 of 1980

MEDICAL AND KINDRED PROFESSIONS ORDINANCE(CAP. 51)*Training School for Enrolled Nurses (Amendment) Regulations, 1980

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 72 of the Medical and Kindred Professions Ordinance, the Minister of Health and Environment, on the advice of the Nursing and Midwifery Board, has made the following regulations:—

Citation.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Training School for Enrolled Nurses (Amendment) Regulations, 1980, and shall be read and construed as one with the Training School for Enrolled Nurses Regulations, 1971, hereinafter referred to as the “principal regulations”.

L.N. 89 of 1971

Substitutes regulation 14 of the principal regulations.

2. For regulation 14 of the principal regulations there shall be substituted the following new regulation —

“Eligibility to sit at Intermediate Examination and Final Assessment.

14. (1) No pupil nurse may sit for the Intermediate Examination until she shall have passed the Introductory examination.

(2) No pupil nurse may sit for the Final Assessment unless she shall have passed the Intermediate Examination:

Provided that no pupil nurse shall sit for the Final Assessment if she has absented herself on sick leave or other cause (excluding vacation leave) in excess of an aggregate period of twenty days throughout the duration of the prescribed course of studies at the training school, unless she has made up for the excess absenteeism by attending for practical duties at a Government Hospital to the satisfaction of the Principal Nursing Tutor, before sitting for the Final Assessment:

Provided further that after making up for the excess absenteeism, such pupil nurse shall not be entitled to a special session of the Final Assessment but may sit at a session not earlier than that which is due in the normal course of events.

(3) Any pupil nurse may make up for the excess absenteeism, referred to in paragraph (2) of this regulation, or for any part thereof, by forfeiting an equivalent number of days of vacation leave to which she may be entitled.

(4) Any excess absenteeism existing before the coming into force of these regulations shall not be considered for the purpose of this regulation.”.
