SCHEDULE

PART I

PRELIMINARY

- Short title. 1. The short title of this Act is the Gaming Act.
- Interpretation.
*Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.* 2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires -
- "authorised game" means a game specified by the Authority under article 29 to be an authorised game for the purposes of this Act;
- "authorised machine" means a machine used for the purpose of gaming as specified under article 31(1);
- Cap. 438. "Authority" means the Lotteries and Gaming Authority established under article 9 of the Lotteries and Other Games Act;
- "casino" means such premises in relation to which the Minister has granted a concession under article 3;
- "casino employee" means any receptionist, dealer, chef de table, cashier, supervisor, watcher, machine engineer, manager, or any other person who, in the view of the Authority, is involved in the gaming operations of a casino;
- "casino licence" means a licence granted under article 15;
- "chips" means any tokens used or capable of being used in a casino in the conduct of gaming in the place of money and approved for this purpose by the Authority;
- "gaming" means the playing of a game of chance for money or money's worth;
- "gaming equipment" means any electrical, electronic or mechanical device, cards or any other thing, other than chips, used, or suitable for use, in connection with gaming;
- "gaming machine" means any machine which is constructed or adapted for playing a game of chance or chance and skill combined as may be prescribed by the Minister;
- Cap. 438. "inspector" shall have the same meaning as is assigned to it in article 2 of the Lotteries and Other Games Act;
- "junket" means an arrangement the purpose of which is to induce any person, selected or approved for participation therein on the basis of his ability to satisfy a financial qualification obligation related to his ability or willingness to gamble, or on any other basis related to his propensity to gamble, to come to a licensed casino for the purpose of gambling and pursuant to which, and as a consideration for which, any or all of the costs of transportation, food, lodging, and entertainment for the said person is directly or indirectly paid by a casino licensee;
- "Minister" means the Minister responsible for finance.

PART IICONCESSIONS

3. (1) It shall be lawful for the Minister to grant concessions to persons to open and operate casinos.

Concession to open and operate casino.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

(2) A concession under this article shall be granted for such consideration including the payment of any sums of money to the general revenues, for such period and upon such terms and conditions as the Minister thinks fit.

(3) The grant of a concession under this article shall not dispense any person opening or operating a casino from the requirement of any licence by the Authority under this Act.

(4) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this article, the Minister may from time to time designate a company owned wholly directly or indirectly by the Government as the Government Casino Operator and such company shall, whenever the Minister so directs, take over the operation of a casino owned directly or indirectly by the Government whenever the person to whom a concession has been granted to run such casino for any reason abandons such concession or has his licence revoked or suspended under this Act.

4. Subject to the requirement of any other licence under this Act or any other law and to the other provisions of this Act, where a concession has been given by the Minister under article 3, or where the Minister has directed a company as therein referred to operate a casino, then, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, it shall be lawful during the period of such concession -

Playing of games in casino.

- (a) for the person to whom such concession has been granted or for any person to whom such concession has been assigned in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof, or for the company so directed, to permit the use of the premises specified in the concession as a casino for the playing therein of such games of chance for money or money's worth and for such stakes as may be specified in the casino licence and to encourage the playing therein by such persons of any such games for any such stake; and
- (b) for any person to take part therein in any such game for any such stake.

PART IIITHE AUTHORITY AND INSPECTORS

5. The Authority shall carry out the functions assigned to it by the provisions of this Act or of any other law or of regulations made thereunder and shall perform such other functions as the Minister may from time to time assign to the Authority by order in writing and considered appropriate by the Minister in relation to the operation of this Act or of any other law.

Substituted by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

Lotteries and Gaming Authority.
Substituted by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

Functions of the Authority.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

6. The functions of the Authority shall be -
- (a) to supervise the operation of casinos;
 - (b) to issue licences to own and/or operate casinos under article 15;
 - (c) to issue licences to the casino employees, including the managers thereof, and junket leaders, proposed to be engaged by a casino licensee to work in relation to gaming;
 - (d) to inquire into the suitability of -
 - (i) casino owners and operators, licensees or persons nominated as proposed casino licensees; and
 - (ii) the employees, including the management and junket leaders, proposed to be engaged by the casino licensee;
 - (e) to regulate by licence the importation, supply and maintenance of gaming machines and gaming equipment for casinos;
 - (f) to advise the Minister on the making of regulations, in accordance with the provisions of article 50, on matters relating to the control of casinos or of the operation of casinos, or, generally to gaming in casinos;
 - (g) to perform any of the functions that is or may be assigned to it by this or any other law.

9. Deleted by Act XXIV. 2001.80.

Rights of inspectors.
Amended by:
L.N. 426 of 2012.

10. An inspector may at any time upon production of his legally valid identification document enter and remain in casino for the purposes of -

- (a) viewing gaming;
- (b) observing any of the operations of the casino or, generally, of gaming;
- (c) ascertaining whether the operation of the casino or, generally of gaming, is being properly conducted, supervised and managed;
- (d) ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act are being complied with; and
- (e) in any other respect, exercising his powers or performing his duties.

Powers of inspectors.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

11. (1) An inspector may for the purpose of ascertaining that the provisions of this Act are being complied with and that the full amount of tax under this Act is being paid -

- (a) require any person whom the inspector believes, on reasonable grounds, to be in possession or have under his control any gaming equipment or chips -

- (i) to produce the equipment or chips to the inspector for inspection or testing; or
 - (ii) to attend before the inspector at a reasonable time and place specified by the inspector and there to answer such questions, or to supply such information, relating to the equipment or chips as the inspector specifies;
- (b) require a casino licensee or a person acting on behalf of a casino licensee -
- (i) to produce to the inspector for inspection such book or document in his custody or control relating to the operation of the casino as the inspector specifies; or
 - (ii) to attend before the inspector at a reasonable time and place specified by the inspector and there to answer such questions, to supply such information, or to produce such book or document, relating to the operation of the casino as the inspector specifies;
- (c) inspect or test any gaming equipment or chips or inspect such book or document, and take copies of, or make notes in relation to, such book or document, relating to the operation of the casino as the inspector considers necessary;
- (d) direct a casino licensee not to use any gaming equipment or chips that the inspector considers to be unsatisfactory for use;
- (e) receive and, if the inspector thinks fit, investigate a complaint with respect to any aspect of the operation of a casino and to make a report of the result of such investigation to the Authority;
- (f) call to the inspector's assistance -
- (i) another inspector; or
 - (ii) a casino employee who, in the belief of the inspector, is competent to assist the inspector in the exercise of his powers or performance of his duties; and
- (g) require any person entering or to be found at a casino to produce identification documents.

(2) A requirement under subarticle (1)(a) or (b) or a direction under paragraph (d) of the same subarticle shall be made by notice in writing or orally as the inspector deems fit in the circumstances.

(3) An inspector shall be present in a casino at the opening and closing of any gaming table, when any adjustment is made to the table float, when the count of money and tokens is undertaken, and at the opening and closing of any gaming machine and to verify jackpot wins.

(4) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, hinders or fails to assist the inspector in the discharge of his duties under subarticle (1), shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

(5) An inspector shall make a report on the exercise of his functions under this Act to the Authority.

Powers of the Authority.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

12. (1) Without prejudice to any power exercisable by virtue of the preceding provisions of this Act, the Authority may at any time serve on a casino licensee a notice requiring him, in such manner and within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice -

- (a) to produce for inspection by or on behalf of the Authority books or documents relating to the casino, as specified in the notice which the Authority reasonably requires to inspect for the purpose specified in of article 11(1), and
- (b) to furnish the Authority with information relating to the premises as specified in the notice which the Authority reasonably requires for that purpose.

(2) If without reasonable excuse any requirement imposed in relation to a casino by a notice served by virtue of subarticle (1) is not complied with, the casino licensee shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

Professional secrecy.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.
Cap. 377.

13. Without prejudice to the provisions of the Professional Secrecy Act, any information disclosed to an inspector, the Authority or any member, officer or employee of the Authority, and any document produced in pursuance of articles 11 or 12 shall be secret and confidential and may not be disclosed or produced other than for the purposes of this Act or any prosecution for an offence against this Act or an offence committed against or in a casino.

PART IV

GRANT OF CASINO LICENCE

Requirement of licence.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

14. No person may open or operate a casino unless he is in possession of a licence by the Authority.

Grant of casino licence.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80;
XI. 2011.3.

15. (1) It shall be lawful for the Authority by licence to authorise a person to open and operate a casino in Malta.

(2) The Authority shall not issue such licence to a person unless that person is a company registered in Malta and unless it appears to the Authority that -

- (a) the relevant voting share capital of the proposed casino licensee is owned, directly or indirectly, by a person or persons of integrity;
- (b) the director or directors of the company or of any affiliate thereof are persons of integrity;

- (c) the proposed casino licensee has the financial means and expertise available to operate the casino and to fulfil all its obligations under this Act.

(3) A casino licence remains in force for up to ten years and shall be subject to the annual payment of a licence fee. Subject to compliance with the provisions of this Act, the licence, unless it is sooner surrendered or cancelled, may be renewed by the Authority. A casino licence shall, in all cases, be conditional to there being a concession by the Minister in favour of the licensee in accordance with the provisions of Part II of this Act.

(4) The casino licence shall be in a form approved by the Board and -

(a) shall specify inter alia:

- (i) the date of its issue;
- (ii) the date of its expiration;
- (iii) the name of the licensee;
- (iv) an address in Malta specified by the licensee for the service of documents on the licensee;
- (v) the address of the casino;
- (vi) the maximum number of tables that can be operated under the licence;
- (vii) the maximum number of machines allowed to be used under the licence;
- (viii) the minimum opening hours;
- (ix) such other particulars relating to the casino as the Authority considers necessary; and
- (x) such other particulars as may be prescribed;

(b) shall identify the area or areas by reference to plans designated to be the casino.

(5) (a) A licensee shall within fourteen days of any change in the ownership of any share capital of the company or of its affiliates and of any change in the management or Board of Directors of the company or of its affiliates inform the Authority of such change.

(b) If pursuant to any change as is referred to in paragraph (a) a situation is brought about that had it existed at the time of the application for the licence, would have disqualified the company from obtaining a licence in accordance with subarticle (2), the Authority shall by notice inform the licensee accordingly and if the situation shall not have been remedied within one calendar month from the notice to that effect by the Authority, the Authority shall revoke the licence:

Provided that the Authority shall not issue a notice as aforesaid later than three calendar months after being informed by the licensee of the change in accordance with paragraph (a).

(6) Failure to comply with the provisions of subarticle (5) shall constitute an offence against this Act.

(7) A licence under this article may not be assigned.

Casino licence fee.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80;
XV. 2011.4.

16. (1) The Authority shall, on the basis of the costs incurred by itself in carrying out its functions under this Act, determine the casino licence fee, in the casino licence, for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The casino licence fee is payable in advance to the Authority on behalf of the Government on each anniversary of the licence by the casino licensee.

(3) Determinations and variations under sub-article (1) shall not be made at intervals of less than twelve months.

Surrender of casino licence.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

17. (1) The casino licensee may surrender the casino licence at any time by giving notice in writing to the Authority not less than one year prior to the date of the surrender of the licence.

(2) The surrender of any casino licence shall not dispense the person surrendering the licence from any obligation incurred under articles 16 and 37.

(3) If the casino licensee surrenders the casino licence without giving the notice specified in subarticle (1), the gaming equipment and machines to be found in the casino shall be forfeited to the Authority on behalf of the Government.

Cancellation of casino licence - grounds.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

18. The Authority may order the cancellation of a casino licence on any of the following grounds:

- (a) any director or manager of the casino licensee is convicted of an offence against this Act or of theft, receiving stolen property, fraud or any crime against public trust;
- (b) the casino licensee contravenes a provision of this Act or is in breach of a licence condition;
- (c) the casino licensee knowingly or recklessly supplies to the Authority information that is false or misleading in a material particular;
- (d) the casino licensee fails to fulfil the licensee's financial commitments when they become due and payable;
- (e) the casino licensee fails to maintain the formal gaming reserve as specified in article 39;
- (f) the licensee is being wound up; or
- (g) the Authority is satisfied that the casino licensee is not, or has ceased to be, a suitable person to be the licensee of a casino.

Cancellation of casino licence - procedures.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

19. (1) Where a ground for cancellation of the casino licence arises under article 18, the Authority, by notice in writing, shall request the casino licensee, and may request any other person who in its opinion has an interest in the licence, to show cause, within such period, being not less than twenty-one days after the issue of the notice, as is specified in the notice, why the casino licence should not be cancelled on such ground as stated in the notice.

(2) The Authority shall have regard to any response made under subarticle (1) and -

- (a) where the matter is resolved to its satisfaction shall take no further action;
- (b) where, although the matter is not resolved to its satisfaction, it considers that further action is not warranted, it shall, in writing, caution the casino licensee; or
- (c) where the matter is not resolved to its satisfaction and it is satisfied that further action is warranted, it may -
 - (i) by notice in writing, give such direction as it considers appropriate; or
 - (ii) suspend for such period as it thinks fit, or cancel, the casino licence.

(3) Where a direction given by the Authority under subarticle (2)(c)(i) is not complied with within the time specified in the notice, the Authority shall cancel the casino licence.

20. (1) No person shall employ or work as a -

- (i) casino employee;
- (ii) casino manager; or
- (iii) junket leader,

Licence for employees.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

without a licence from the Authority, wherever such licence shall be required by any regulations under this Act.

(2) Any person who shall do anything referred to in subarticle (1) wherever a licence therefor is required under subarticle (1), without being in possession of the relative licence or not in accordance with such licence shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

PART V

OPERATION OF CASINO

21. (1) It shall be lawful for a casino licensee to require persons entering the casino premises to pay a fee therefor. Such fee shall be fixed by the licensee with the approval of the Authority.

Entrance fee.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

(2) Such approved fee is to be clearly displayed at the entrance to the premises. All such fees received shall be recorded.

22. (1) A casino licensee shall -

- (a) maintain the facilities and amenities of the casino in a condition to the satisfaction of the Authority;
- (b) ensure that the casino is at all times properly and

Maintenance of facilities.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

competently conducted;

- (c) ensure that all casino installations, equipment and procedures for security are available and are tested, used, operated and applied effectively; and
- (d) ensure the gaming equipment and chips approved by the Authority for use in the casino are maintained in good order and condition.

(2) The casino licensee shall not operate the casino unless the layout of the casino is in accordance with plans and diagrams approved by the Authority.

Security.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

23. The casino licensee shall, for the purpose of ensuring security within the premises of the casino, install and keep in good working order such camera and audio system, in such numbers and locations, and which shall be monitored by such number of persons adequately trained to be employed as professional security staff as may be approved by the Authority.

Operating times.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

24. The Authority shall, in the casino licence, establish a schedule of minimum operating times for the casino setting out the days on which, and hours during which, the licensee shall operate the casino. The Authority may also establish the days during which casinos shall remain closed.

Identification.
Amended by:
L.N. 426 of 2012.

25. (1) It shall be the duty of the casino licensee to ensure that persons entering the casino premises are identified and may at any time request such persons to produce their legally valid identification document or passport for inspection.

(2) The casino licensee shall cause the particulars of persons entering the casino together with details of a legally valid identification document or passport produced to be registered in a register kept at the casino premises for such purpose.

Exclusion of certain persons
from a casino.
Amended by:
L.N. 426 of 2012.

26. (1) A person shall not enter a casino during the hours of operation of the casino, if the person -

- (a) is requested by a licensed casino employee not to enter the casino or other gaming premises, as the case may be, on the ground that the person has previously contravened the approved rules of an authorised game or rules of conduct of gaming in force;
- (b) is a person in relation to whom a court order under article 27(1) is in force;
- (c) is in the case of a citizen of Malta under the age of twenty-five years;
- (d) is in the case of any other person under the age of eighteen years;
- (e) has asked for a ban or restriction on his own admission;
- (f) upon a request to do so by a licensed casino employee, fails to produce his legally valid identification document or passport; or

- (g) appears to be under the influence of alcohol or a drug or is acting in a disorderly manner:

Provided that, any ban or restriction of admission shall, under paragraph (e), have effect during the period requested by the person concerned, which shall not be less than six months and not more than one year. Any such ban or restriction cannot be cancelled before its expiry.

(2) A person shall not remain in a casino during the hours of operation of the casino if the person -

- (a) when requested to do so by a licensed casino employee, refuses or fails to produce evidence of his age;
- (b) has been requested by a licensed casino employee to leave the casino on the ground that the person -
- (i) appears not to understand fully the nature or consequences of gaming as it relates to the application of the approved rules of authorised games and the potential for financial loss;
 - (ii) appears to be under the influence of alcohol or a drug;
 - (iii) is affecting the orderly functioning of the operations of the casino or, generally, of gaming whether because of the influence of alcohol or drugs or otherwise;
 - (iv) appears to be disturbing the peace or affecting the orderly functioning of the operations of the casino;
 - (v) appears to be cheating, or attempting to cheat, in the casino; or
 - (vi) has previously contravened the approved rules of an authorised game or rules of conduct in force in a casino;
- (c) is a person in relation to whom a court order under article 27 is in force.

(3) Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Act, admission to a casino shall be at the discretion of the licensee who shall ensure that persons who may have a problem of pathological gambling are not given access to the gaming area:

Provided that no person shall be refused admission to a casino by reason of his race, place of origin, political opinion, colour, creed, sex or physical infirmity.

27. (1) Where any person is convicted by a court of an offence which in the opinion of the court is of such nature, or where the circumstances under which it was committed were such that it is undesirable that the person so convicted should be permitted to enter a casino, the court may in addition to any other power under any other law make an order prohibiting the person convicted from entering a casino as specified in such order, for such period as may be specified therein.

Power of court to prohibit persons from entering casino.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

(2) The Authority as well as all casino licensees shall, as soon as practicable, be notified with such order by the Registrar of Court.

(3) The casino licensee shall keep a list of the names, together with any other available identification details of those persons, in relation to whom a court order has been made as provided in subarticle (1).

(4) A casino licensee shall make the said list available for inspection by the Authority and by inspectors.

Enforcement.

28. (1) A person who is -

- (a) a police officer; or
- (b) for the time being in charge of the casino; or
- (c) an agent or an employee of the casino licensee, may, with such assistance as is necessary and reasonable and using such force as is necessary and reasonable, cause any person who, under article 26, may not enter, or remain in, the casino:

- (i) to be prevented from entering the casino; or
- (ii) to be removed promptly from the casino as the case requires.

(2) A person who, without reasonable excuse, obstructs or hinders a person in the exercise of a power conferred on the latter person under subarticle (1), shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

(3) The casino licensee who, knowingly or recklessly, permits to enter, or fails to remove from, the casino a person who is not entitled to be in such premises by virtue of the provisions of article 26, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

Authorised games.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

29. (1) The Authority shall, in the casino licence issued or to be issued under this Act, specify the game or games to be designated as authorised games for the purposes of the Act.

(2) The Authority may at any time alter the list of the designated authorised games and the approved rules of a game as specified in the casino licence.

(3) In carrying out its functions under subarticles (1) and (2), the Authority shall seek the agreement of the casino licensee thereon.

Gaming in the casino.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

30. The Minister may, after consultation with the Authority, make regulations specifying in a general manner the terms and conditions according to which gaming is to be conducted in a casino. The Authority may in a casino licence specify in a particular manner terms and conditions, being terms and conditions not prohibited by regulations, according to which gaming is to be conducted in a casino.

31. (1) The Authority shall, in a casino licence, specify the number of authorised machines that may be installed and kept for use on the casino premises, and may in the licence subject the keeping of such machines to any conditions as may be specified by the Authority in the licence.

Use of machines by virtue of licence.
Amended by: XXIV. 2001.80.

(2) Subject to any limitation in the concession granted by the Minister under article 3 the Authority may, either on its own initiative or upon a request by the casino licensee, upon the renewal of a casino licence, vary the number of, and the terms and conditions regulating, authorised machines permitted to be installed in the casino:

Provided that the Authority shall not refuse the request made by the casino licensee under this subarticle unless there are reasonable grounds for such refusal. The acceptance or refusal of any such request shall be made in writing.

32. (1) No gaming machine of any description shall be kept for use in a casino -

Offences relating to gaming machines.

- (a) contrary to the conditions specified in the casino licence; or
- (b) without the machine being registered in accordance with any regulations issued under this Act and in force from time to time.

(2) If any gaming machine is kept for use in the casino in contravention of subarticle (1), the casino licensee shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

(3) Any person who manufactures, imports, keeps or supplies a gaming machine for use as a casino under this Act shall, without prejudice to any other liability under any other law, be guilty of an offence under this Act:

Provided that the Minister may, under such conditions as he may deem appropriate, give a permit for the manufacture of gaming machines for export, and any machines manufactured in accordance with such a permit shall not be deemed to be manufactured in contravention of this subarticle.

(4) If, in any proceedings for an offence under subarticles (2) and (3), it is proved that a gaming machine was on the premises of a casino, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that the machine was kept on the premises of the casino for use on those premises.

PART VI

PROVISION OF MONEY FOR GAMING

33. It shall not be lawful for the licensee or any person acting on his behalf or under any arrangement with him, to make any loan or otherwise provide or allow to any person any credit, or release or discharge on another person's behalf, the whole or part of any debt:

Restriction on credit.

- (a) for enabling a person to take part in gaming at a casino; or
- (b) in respect of any losses incurred by any person in gaming at a casino.

Applicability of articles 1713 and 1716 of the Civil Code.
Cap. 16.

34. (1) Article 1716 of the Civil Code shall not apply with respect to a game lawfully played in a licensed casino.

(2) The provisions of article 1713 of the Civil Code shall not prejudice the right of the casino licensee to recover a debt arising from the acceptance of a cheque in accordance with article 35 and which is subsequently not honoured.

Cheques.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

35. (1) Subject to any regulation made by the Minister or any directive that may be issued by the Authority, a casino licensee or any person acting on his behalf or under any arrangement with him may, if he has reasonable grounds to believe that a cheque will be honoured upon presentation, accept a cheque and give in exchange for it cash or tokens for enabling such person to take part in the gaming as long as -

- (a) the cheque is not a post-dated cheque; and
- (b) the cheque is exchanged either for cash to an amount equal to the amount for which it is drawn, or it is exchanged for tokens at the same rate as would apply if cash, to the amount for which the cheque is drawn, were given in exchange for them.

(2) Where the conditions set out in subarticle (1) are fulfilled, the giving of cash or tokens in exchange for a cheque shall not be deemed to be contrary to the provisions of article 33.

(3) Where the casino licensee or a person acting on his behalf or under any arrangement with the licensee, accepts a cheque in exchange for cash or tokens to be used by a player in gaming, he shall, not more than two banking days later, cause the cheque to be delivered to a bank for payment or collection.

Redemption of cheques.

36. A person may, with the consent of the casino licensee, and not later than thirty minutes from the end of a gaming session redeem any cheque accepted from the person by the casino licensee during that gaming session by presenting at the cash desk of the casino -

- (a) an amount of money, or
- (b) chips the face value of which is, or
- (c) any combination of cash and chips, or
- (d) where more than one cheque is being redeemed, a consolidating cheque for an amount, equivalent to the amount for which the cheque or cheques are drawn, or the sum of the amounts of the cheques, to be redeemed.

FINANCIAL

37. (1) The licensee shall pay to the Authority on behalf of the Government the rate of tax based on the total gross takings of all games played at the casino specified in the Schedule without the deduction of any expenses of any kind whatsoever, but subject to the following provisions of this article. The licensee shall not later than the seventh day of each month, effect payment to the Authority of the tax due in respect of the preceding month.

Tax.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

(2) For the purpose of determining the sums due to the Authority under subarticle (1), the gross takings or gross losses, as the case may be, on all games of chance shall be those resulting at the closing of the casino each day, but the casino licensee shall be entitled to set off any gross losses on such games incurred during any two months against gross takings on such games made during the same months:

Provided that where a casino remains open for twenty-four hours in a day the closing of the casino for the purposes of this subarticle shall be deemed to be 8 a.m.

(3) The gross takings or losses on all games of chance shall be calculated at the closing of the casino each day and duly appointed representatives of the Authority shall be entitled to attend the making of such daily calculation for the purpose of verifying the same and, moreover, to attend at the playing of all games at the casino.

(4) The licensee shall further pay to the Authority on behalf of the Government such rate of tax on the casino entrance fee as may be specified in the casino licence.

(5) For the purposes of subarticle (2), the term "two months" means periods of two months, ending at the closing of the casino on the last day of February, April, June, August, October and December of each calendar year and does not include any time after the closing of the casino during which the business of the casino, commenced on the last day of the relevant two months' period, is continued or concluded.

38. (1) Upon the grant of a casino licence, the Authority may require the casino licensee to take out a bank guarantee issued by a bank or by a credit or financial institution licensed in Malta in favour of the Authority on behalf of the Government in an amount not exceeding the gaming reserve and subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified in the licence. Such bank guarantee shall remain valid until the expiration of one year after the expiration of the licence.

Bank guarantee.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

(2) The casino licensee may forfeit such bank guarantee in favour of the Authority in any of the following cases:

- (a) upon the surrender of the casino licence under article 17;
- (b) upon cancellation of the casino licence by the Authority under article 18;

- (c) upon breach of any of the conditions in respect of maintenance of facilities in terms of article 22;
- (d) in settlement of any liability of the licensee with respect to a fine imposed under Part VIII of this Act.

Gaming reserve.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.

39. (1) Upon the grant of a casino licence, the casino licensee shall establish a formal reserve in an amount to be fixed by the Authority which will protect the casino against a run of gaming losses and therefore ensure that punters are paid out after a large win and which will provide comfort that the casino licensee has adequate financial resources to carry on the business of casino gaming to acceptable and proper standards and without imminent risk of closure or liquidation.

(2) The gaming reserve shall be in the form of a deposit held with a bank established in Malta and or any other security held on the licensee's behalf by such bank acceptable to the Authority. The casino licensee shall cause the bank to confirm existence of such a reserve to the Authority, as and when requested by the Authority, and in any case annually upon every anniversary of the licence.

(3) Should it be necessary for the reserve to be drawn upon, the casino licensee shall immediately inform the Authority and shall restore the reserve within two months and shall thereupon cause the bank to confirm its restoration to the Authority.

Prevention of money
laundering.
Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80.
Cap. 373.

40. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, and of article 50, the Minister with the concurrence of the Minister responsible for justice may by order provide guidelines for conduct by a licensee, inspectors or the Authority in relation to certain transactions that may give rise to suspicion of money laundering, and may in particular provide that the provisions of article 12(1) of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act shall apply with regards to a casino with such modifications and adaptations as may be specified in the Order.

(2) Where an inspector or a casino employee has reason to suspect that a transaction or a proposed transaction could involve money laundering, he shall act in accordance with regulations made under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, and any regulation made under this Act, applicable thereto.

Cap. 373.

Exchange control.

41. It shall be lawful for a casino licensee, upon authorisation granted by the Central Bank of Malta and subject to such conditions as may be specified in such authorisation, to provide facilities for the exchange of foreign currency on the casino premises.

PART VIII

OFFENCES

42. (1) Any person guilty of an offence against this Act, shall on conviction be liable to a fine (multa) of not less than six thousand and nine hundred and eighty-eight euro and twelve cents (6,988.12) and not more than two hundred and thirty-two thousand and nine hundred and thirty-seven euro and thirty-four cents (232,937.34) or to imprisonment of not more than two years or to both such fine and imprisonment:

Penalty for offences against this Act.

Amended by:
XXIV. 2001.80;
L.N. 425 of 2007.

Provided that where the person so found guilty is the director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of a company or other undertaking the said person shall, for the purpose of this article, be deemed to be vested with the legal representation of the same company or other undertaking which accordingly shall be liable in solidum with the person found guilty for the payment of the said fine:

Provided further that where the Attorney General in the sanction issued in accordance with article 48, certifies that the offence will be adequately punished with a fine (multa) of not less than two hundred and thirty-two euro and ninety-four cents (232.94) and not more than six thousand and nine hundred and eighty-eight euro and twelve cents (6,988.12) the applicable penalty shall be a fine (multa) of not less than two hundred and thirty-two euro and ninety-four cents (232.94) and not more than six thousand and nine hundred and eighty-eight euro and twelve cents (6,988.12).

(2) The fine referred to in subarticle (1) shall be recoverable as a civil debt in favour of the Government by the Chief Executive of the Authority.

(3) The provisions of the Probation Act and of article 21 and of articles 28A to 28I of the Criminal Code shall not apply with respect to offences referred to in subarticle (1).

Cap. 446.

Cap. 9.

42A. (1) The Authority may, with the concurrence of any licensee or holder of a permit issued in terms of article 36 who contravenes a condition of his licence or, as the case may be, of his permit, or any directive issued by the Authority in terms of this Act or of regulations made thereunder and applicable to such licensee or, as the case may be, to such permit holder where such contravention amounts to an offence against this Act, impose administrative penalties or sanctions upon such licensee or holder of a permit as an alternative to proceedings in Court.

Administrative penalties.

Added by:
XV. 2011.5.

(2) For the purposes of subarticle (1), where the Authority decides to exercise its powers thereunder, the Authority shall enter into an agreement in writing with the offender whereby the said offender pays a sum which shall not exceed two hundred and thirty-five thousand euro (€235,000.00), as the Authority shall determine, and upon the signing of any such agreement between the Authority and the offender, all criminal liability of the offender under this Act, with regard to the offence or offences in relation to which the agreement has been entered, shall be extinguished:

Provided that any such agreement and the provisions of this article shall be without prejudice to the power of the Authority, where applicable, to cancel or suspend the licence held by the offender in terms of the provisions of this Act relating to cancellation or suspension of the relevant licence.

(3) The provisions of subarticle (2) shall apply also in any case where the offender has been charged before a Court in relation to the offence, but before final judgement has been given in the case.

(4) Any sum due by virtue of an agreement entered into in terms of subarticle (2) shall be due to the Authority as a civil debt. The Authority shall not enter into an agreement as is referred to in subarticle (2), unless such agreement is accompanied by the payment of the sum due or by an adequate and sufficient security for its payment.

Use of counterfeit chips.

43. (1) It shall not be lawful for a person to use, or have in his possession, in or outside a casino -

- (a) chips that the person knows are counterfeit chips; or
- (b) cards, dice or coins that the person knows have been marked, loaded or tampered with.

(2) Whosoever shall contravene the provisions of subarticle (1) shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Forgery.

44. (1) It shall not be lawful for a person -

- (a) to forge or counterfeit any chips or other tokens to be used in a casino licensed under this Act, or a licence used for the purposes of this Act; or
- (b) knowingly to utter counterfeit chips or knowingly utter a forged or counterfeit licence.

(2) Whosoever shall contravene subarticle (1) shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.
